

The Weather.

Forecast for Thursday and Friday: Kentucky—Increasing cloudiness Thursday, warmer in central and east portions; showers by night; Friday showers and cooler except generally fair in extreme west portion.

Indiana—Showers Thursday and probably Friday, cooler Friday; brisk to high east to north winds.

Tennessee—Increasing cloudiness Thursday; showers by night in west portion; Friday showers and cooler except generally fair in extreme west portion.

THE LATEST.

An exhaustive speech on the lumber schedule of the tariff bill by Mr. Simmons, of North Carolina, was the feature of the session of the Senate. Mr. Simmons spoke for three and a half hours in support of the retention of the present tariff which, he maintained, was but a revenue rate. Several times the National Democratic platform of 1908, which declared for free lumber, was injected into the discussion by Republican Senators and Mr. Bacon, of Georgia, remarked that he was not bound by declarations written into a platform at midnight by a few interested men. Burkett, of Nebraska, whose home city is Lincoln, sought to state when and where the Democratic platform actually was drawn, but Mr. Simmons refused to yield time to prolong that discussion.

The jury in the Beach Hargis case, after being out nearly twenty-four hours, brought in a verdict of murder in the first degree and fixing his punishment at life in the penitentiary. The patriots showed little emotion when the verdict was read, although his mother, who had stood by him so valiantly, had an expression of disappointment. The attorneys for Hargis, after a consultation, decided to apply for a new trial and Judge Adams will hear the motion to-day. In case a new trial is refused the case will be taken to the Court of Appeals.

The second district Democratic senatorial convention, after a stormy session of two days, nominated last night W. V. Eaton, of Paducah. The Barry faction of the convention, which had made a hard fight throughout, finally became reconciled and his manager moved the nomination of Eaton by acclamation. The convention endorsed the candidacies of Prison Commissioners Brown and McCutchen and severely censured Gov. Willson for pardoning the men indicted for the Goebel murder without a trial.

Abdul Hamid, the deposed Sultan of Turkey, has been sent to Saloniki, where he will be kept a prisoner. He was removed under a heavy cover of darkness from the Imperial palace at Yildiz to the railroad station in Stambul. The new Sultan, Mehmed V., has assumed his court duties. The soldiers who engaged in the recent mutiny are being tried by court-martial and many of them are being shot to death.

Ross county, O., in which is located the city of Chillicothe, went "wet" in yesterday's local option election by a majority of about 2,000. The day was marked throughout by scenes of great disorder.

One person was killed and ten injured by a tornado which wrecked a large portion of Douglas, Kan., last evening. The storm spread over a wide area, doing much damage to farm property.

The entire agreement presented to the miners' convention at Scranton, Pa., was adopted without change and the convention adjourned. The compact will be signed to-day in Philadelphia.

James S. Cabanne III, who was smuggled out of St. Louis by Broughton Brandenburg, was taken yesterday from the detention home at San Francisco and given to his father, James Sheppard Cabanne, of St. Louis.

Miss Muriel White, daughter of the American Ambassador to France, was married in Paris at noon yesterday to Count Hermann Scherr-Thoss, an officer of the Royal Prussian Cuirassiers.

A man who was arrested at Monte Carlo yesterday by the French police, declared that he was an anarchist and that he had intended killing President Fallieres of France.

Two men have been arrested in London charged with attempting to extort $10,000 from James White, of Sharon, Pa., under the threat that they would kidnap his son, Willie.

Formal recognition of Mehmed V. as Sultan of Turkey will be given by the United States Government. A dispatch to that effect to Ambassador Leishman has gone forward.

Following the announcement by the Carnegie Steel Company of an increase in prices of their products, other steel manufacturers are increasing prices.

An official dispatch received in Berlin reports severe earth shocks in Kamerun, West Africa, that have continued since Monday afternoon.

Olive Logan, the American author, actress and lecturer, died in an English asylum of heart disease.

Frederick G. Holbrook, aged 36, former Governor of Vermont, died last night at Brattleboro.

LIFE TERM FOR BEACH HARGIS

Jury Returns Verdict After Long Deliberation

Attorneys For Defendant To Ask For New Trial

Patriots' Fates Fate Without Hint of Emotion

MURDERED FATHER IN STORE.

Ind., April 28.—[Special.]—Beach Hargis, patrioteer, was found guilty of the murder of his father, Judge Hargis, by the jury and given a life sentence in the penitentiary in the East Circuit Court this afternoon.

The jury had the case since yesterday afternoon and on account of a verdict not being returned during the forenoon the impression had gained ground that there would be either a hung jury or a light sentence. The verdict was returned shortly after 1 o'clock, the defendant being in court surrounded by his mother, sister and attorneys. Mr. Hargis plainly showed her great disappointment, but the young man did not seem to be much crestfallen.

Will Ask For New Trial.

A conference of Hargis and his attorneys at once followed, at which it was decided to ask for a new trial and, failing in this, to take an appeal to the Court of Appeals. Hargis feels that the defense was stifled by the jury being compelled to go to trial during the illness of two of his attorneys and the absence of some of his witnesses. The representatives of the Commonwealth would go to the Court of Appeals with the verdict and believe it is justified by the law and evidence.

Incensed At Judge's Action.

J. C. M. Day, uncle of Beach Hargis, was very much incensed over the action of Judge Adams in permitting the jury to remain at the hotel which is claimed by the defense as the acknowledged headquarters of the prosecution. Mr. Day returned to his home at Winchester this afternoon.

A number of the attorneys, including the Commonwealth's Attorney, remained here to argue the motion for a new trial, which will be made to-morrow. Beach Hargis will remain in jail pending further proceedings in his behalf.

Resulted In Mistrial.

The first trial of Hargis was held at Indianapolis, where he was charged with the murder of his father. The trial was adjourned for several days, and the jury returned a verdict of mistrial.

Admitted To Bail.

After the material Hargis was admitted to bail by Judge Adams in the sum of $20,000, which he readily gave, his uncle the day brothers, going on his bond. It was reported at the time that young Hargis was a reformer and that he had been released from his confinement in prison. Some of his friends even predicted that the youthful patrioteer had thoughts of becoming a minister.

Life of Terrorism.

When Hargis regained his freedom, however, he descended on Jackson like a Comanche Indian. Full of "mountain dew" he proceeded to terrorize his native town and county. He was shot at several times, and the little mountain city at intervals he began a continuous round of debauchery, finally shooting himself, accidentally, up some, until his wound healed. He finally became so desperate that his relatives decided to send him to the authorities and place him in jail again. He has been in prison for the last two months.

Murdered In Store.

The murder of Judge Hargis by his son Beach occurred in the Judge's store at Jackson, Breathitt county, on the afternoon of February 6, 1908. Beach had been intoxicated, it is alleged, for several days, and on the afternoon of the killing he was asserted to have said that his father had been mistreating him, and that he was determined to have revenge. He left the place where he is alleged to have made those threats and went directly to the Hargis store. He was met by his father, who asked him what he had been doing. It is not known what Beach answered, but he shot his father four times, the bullets hitting him in the chest, back and arm. He was shot four times, the bullets hitting him in the chest, back and arm. He was shot four times, the bullets hitting him in the chest, back and arm.

Hargis Faction Splits.

The Judge died while being carried from the store to his home, a short distance away. The death was a surprise to all, and the Hargis faction was split to pieces by the clamorous part of Judge Hargis' friends that Beach be punished, and the other faction who were in favor of his mother. He was placed in jail soon after the shooting, and a day or two later sent to the penitentiary. A considerable quantity of morphine, he was said to have taken, was found in his room. Dr. W. P. Hogg, residing in the jail and using a stomach pump.

RESIGNS AS MANAGER FOR THE MUTUAL LIFE.

Thomas C. Hindman, of Nashville, Associates Himself With Brother-in-Law in Norwich Union.

Nashville, Tenn., April 28.—[Special.]—Thomas C. Hindman, Tennessee, who has been associated with his brother, Col. R. C. Hindman, of Louisville, has just been appointed general manager of the Mutual Life Insurance Company of England, Ltd., one of the oldest insurance companies in the world.

Mr. Hindman is an aggressive and successful business man. He has been associated with his brother, Col. R. C. Hindman, of Louisville, for many years. He has been associated with his brother, Col. R. C. Hindman, of Louisville, for many years. He has been associated with his brother, Col. R. C. Hindman, of Louisville, for many years.

costful life insurance man and has built up a large business for his company, Tennessee. He has just been appointed by Gov. Johnson as a commissioner to the Yukon-Alaskan Exposition at Seattle. He became well known in Louisville some years ago when he successfully fought against some of the officers of the defunct Columbian Fire Insurance Company, for which he was Pacific coast manager at the time.

EXPELS THIRTY JUNIORS OF HIGH SCHOOL CLASS.

Principal At Bedford, Ind., Incensed At Action of Nailing Colors At Top of Flagpole.

Bedford, Ind., April 28.—[Special.]—Thirty members of the Junior high school class were expelled to-day by Principal Newland. The trouble grew out of someone climbing the flagpole during last night, nailing the black and gold banner of the Junior class to the uppermost point on the staff and smearing coal tar on the pole to guard against a rival class hauling down the colors.

CHILICOTHE "WET" BY BIG MAJORITY

"DRYS" BEATEN IN ROSS COUNTY BY 2,000.

DAY MARKED BY SCENES OF GREAT DISORDER.

TROOPS FINALLY CALLED OUT.

Chillicothe, O., April 28.—In a local option election characterized by disorderly scenes throughout the day, at times bordering on rioting, Ross county to-day voted "wet" by a majority estimated at 2,000. The city of Chillicothe gave a wet majority of approximately 1,800 and the county outside was carried by a small majority by the same vote.

The fight was the hottest ever witnessed in Ross county, and for a month past both sides had waged an unceasing campaign. The election was held under the auspices of the city Administration, which led the "wet" forces, while the campaign of the "drys" was conducted by many persons prominent in the anti-alcohol cause, aided by local ministers and during the day numerous conflicts occurred between partisans of the two factions. To restore order Company H, of the Fourth Regiment, Ohio National Guard, was called out and a large force of special deputy sheriffs was also sworn in. These, carrying wads of dynamite, fired from their rifles at the riotous quarter until the police closed.

"Blind Pig" Liquor Burned. Gary, Ind., April 28.—Liquor seized in "blind pig" will be burned hereafter in Gary, Ind. The city of Gary, Ind., has decided to burn all liquor seized in the city. The city of Gary, Ind., has decided to burn all liquor seized in the city.

Bill Was Not Reported. Jefferson City, Mo., April 28.—Because of a committee meeting, the measure submitted to the Senate to-day was not reported to the Senate to-day as was expected.

CABANNE BOY IN FATHER'S CUSTODY

ON WAY BACK TO HIS HOME IN ST. LOUIS.

LIVELY SCENE AT SAN FRANCISCO CITY PRISON.

JIMMY IS COOLEST OF TRIO.

San Francisco, April 28.—[Special.]—Same in the custody of his father, who reached San Francisco this morning. James Sheppard Cabanne III, who was smuggled out of St. Louis by Broughton Brandenburg, was taken yesterday from the detention home at San Francisco and given to his father, James Sheppard Cabanne, of St. Louis.

The chief feature attendant upon the arrival of the boy's father was his meeting with Brandenburg at the city prison. High words passed between the alleged kidnaper and Cabanne.

"What in—do you mean by kidnapping my son?" the father asked, his face as white as a sheet.

"I prevented what had been a battle," the kidnaper replied.

"For three reasons," Brandenburg said. "First, because I wanted to see you, second, because he was badly treated, and third, because I wanted to see you."

HALO AROUND THE SUN IS NOTED AT YALE.

DEFENSELESS GIRL VICTIM OF ASSAULT

JOSIE TURNER, AGED SIXTEEN, FOUND BOUND AND GAGGED AT WINCHESTER.

Winchester, Ky., April 28.—[Special.]—Miss Josie Turner, aged about 15 years, was found near the Farmers and Shippers' National Bank, Winchester, Ky., this morning, bound and gagged with a cloth over her face. She was found in a state of unconsciousness and was taken to the hospital.

THREATENED LIFE OF PRESIDENT FALLIERES.

Monte Carlo, April 28.—A man named Verdon, who was arrested here to-day by the French police, declared that he was an anarchist and that he had intended killing President Fallieres of France, who was visiting here. Verdon comes from Haute Garonne. The police believe he is insane.

DECLINE ISSUE PARTY PRIMARY

Three Candidates Withdraw In Fayette County.

Judge Watts Parker's Action Causes Sensation.

May Head Coalition Ticket With Republicans.

JURIST'S FRIENDS SURPRISED.

Lexington, Ky., April 28.—[Special.]—A sensation was caused in political circles to-day by Judge Watts Parker, candidate for re-nomination as Circuit Judge, and S. J. Moore, candidate for County Assessor, withdrawing their names from the Democratic primary to be held next Tuesday. The action was unexpected, and it is understood that they have bolted the primary with the intention of running on a so-called "citizens" ticket, which will be supported by the Republicans, who will take the blank places on this ticket as members of that party and make no nominations.

Bolted Ticket Expected.

It has been evident for some time from the trend of public opinion that Parker and Scott were doomed to defeat in the Democratic primary. As they were not likely to be re-nominated, they decided to run on a coalition ticket with the Republicans. The coalition ticket was expected to be headed by Parker and Scott, with the Republicans taking the blank places on the ticket.

Didn't Like Election Officers.

Judge Parker lent color to this rumor by making a number of apparently pointed complaints about the appointment of election officers long before they were appointed, and it was expected that the bolt would occur Monday when the names of the election officers were announced. Mr. Hawkins and Foust, however, were the only ones who withdrew at the time, Judge Parker and Mr. Scott making no complaint after examining the list of election officers and being apparently satisfied.

Long Service On Bench.

As Judge Parker has continuously held the position of Circuit Judge for eighteen years, practically ever since he was admitted to the bar, and has always been a member of the bar, it was not believed that he would, when the crucial moment came, bolt a Democratic primary from which he had so long been a beneficiary.

Withdrawal Causes Surprise.

His withdrawal therefore to-day caused much surprise. It was generally expected that he would run on a coalition ticket with the Republicans. The coalition ticket was expected to be headed by Parker and Scott, with the Republicans taking the blank places on the ticket.

Candidates Without Opposition.

The withdrawals to-day leave County Attorney George W. Moore, the primary and Deputy Sheriff Freeman, without opposition. The primary was held on May 4, 1908, and hereby authorized and requested that my name be placed on the primary as follows, and those of the primary as follows, and those of the primary as follows.

Sounds Keynote.

The Lexington Leader, the Republican paper, in its issue this evening, apropos of the withdrawal, says editorially:

"This looks to us like a good time for Republicans and Democrats to bury all party animosities and unite on an independent citizens' ticket, representing all law-abiding citizens that shall sweep the city and county in November. It is up to citizens of all parties, independent of party organizations, to take the lead in hand and restore government of the people, by the people, for the people, in Lexington and Fayette county."

NEGRO ASSAILANT OF WHITE WOMAN LYNCHED.

Bartow, Fla., April 28.—Charles Scarborough, the negro who attempted to assault a white woman, was captured and lynched yesterday.

DAMAGE BY TORNADO IN KANSAS VILLAGES.

Wichita, Kan., April 28.—Louis Ayres, 78 years old, was killed to-day by a tornado at Douglas, Kan. J. J. Jones was seriously injured.

ATTEMPT TO ESCAPE TAXES ON FRANCHISE

HENDERSON STREET RAILWAY COMPANY PLEADS POVERTY.

DIDN'T EVEN WANT TO PAY $11 ON ASSESSMENT.

COULDN'T GET OFF, HOWEVER.

Frankfort, Ky., April 27.—[Special.]—In spite of the argument that as the line is not making any money it should not be required to pay a franchise tax to the State, the Henderson Street Railway Company was assessed on its franchise at $5,000.

OUTS RELIGION FOR AFFINITY

The Rev. P. R. Campbell Arrested In St. Louis.

Was Living With Stamping Ground, Ky., Girl.

His Wife and Son Located In Louisville.

FILLED KENTUCKY PULPITS.

St. Louis, Mo., April 28.—[Special.]—Renouncing the religion he had defended for years in the pulpit, the Rev. P. R. Campbell, of Stamping Ground, Ky., was locked up at Central Station last night in company with his "affinity," Miss Josephine Hoxley, a member of his flock. The girl is but 19 years old and the arrest of the two was made at 2316 Washington avenue, where they were regarded as man and wife.

Renounces His Religion.

Campbell is a pastor of the Christian Church and an ardent admirer of the police. His love for the girl, which took him from his wife and son in Kentucky and brought him to St. Louis, he announced that he had closed his bible for all time and that he was happy in the new-found love and would desert a religion which deified this love to him.

Spark of Souls.

The preacher is 27 years old, and told how the spark of souls which intermingled in the church, led him to his present position. He said that he had been married, and that he had a wife and son in Kentucky. He said that he had been married, and that he had a wife and son in Kentucky. He said that he had been married, and that he had a wife and son in Kentucky.

Arrest of Couple.

The arrest of the couple was made last night on information furnished by John H. Hoxley, a member of the church. The Constable advised the police that the two were living in a rooming house in St. Louis. The Constable advised the police that the two were living in a rooming house in St. Louis.

WIFE IN LOUISVILLE.

Mrs. Campbell Says She Will Not Be Reconciled.

Mrs. Campbell, who is now with her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Duncan, at St. Louis, said that she would not be reconciled to her husband. She said that she would not be reconciled to her husband. She said that she would not be reconciled to her husband.

Many Orators Present.

The nominations called for considerable interest. For Ballou county, James Nichols nominated John M. Moore, and for Harrison county, Alben Barker nominated W. V. Eaton. For Marshall county, Judge R. L. Shemwell nominated J. C. M. Day.

Balloting Begins.

On the first ballot Barry carried five precincts of Ballard, three precincts of Carroll, and two precincts of Marshall. Eaton carried two precincts of Ballard and two precincts of Marshall. Moore carried eight precincts of Ballard, one of Carroll and one of Marshall, with 1,308 votes.

ATTEMPT TO ESCAPE TAXES ON FRANCHISE

HENDERSON STREET RAILWAY COMPANY PLEADS POVERTY.

DIDN'T EVEN WANT TO PAY $11 ON ASSESSMENT.

COULDN'T GET OFF, HOWEVER.

Frankfort, Ky., April 27.—[Special.]—In spite of the argument that as the line is not making any money it should not be required to pay a franchise tax to the State, the Henderson Street Railway Company was assessed on its franchise at $5,000.

DAMAGE BY TORNADO IN KANSAS VILLAGES.

Wichita, Kan., April 28.—Louis Ayres, 78 years old, was killed to-day by a tornado at Douglas, Kan. J. J. Jones was seriously injured.

ATTEMPT TO ESCAPE TAXES ON FRANCHISE

Frankfort, Ky., April 27.—[Special.]—In spite of the argument that as the line is not making any money it should not be required to pay a franchise tax to the State, the Henderson Street Railway Company was assessed on its franchise at $5,000.

DAMAGE BY TORNADO IN KANSAS VILLAGES.

Wichita, Kan., April 28.—Louis Ayres, 78 years old, was killed to-day by a tornado at Douglas, Kan. J. J. Jones was seriously injured.

NAME EATON ON THIRD BALLOT

Paducah Man Is Nominated For State Senator.

Second District Convention Ends In Harmony.

Commissioners Brown and McCutchen Indorsed.

Gov. Willson Is Criticized.

Paducah, Ky., April 28.—[Special.]—W. V. Eaton, of Paducah, was nominated for Senator in the second district convention here to-night on the third ballot. The closing moment of the contest was marked with a degree of moderation that brought the convention to a harmonious conclusion. When on the second ballot it was seen that Eaton had a majority of those voting and the chair was announcing the result, Judge R. L. Shemwell, of Benton, on behalf of E. Barry, protested that under the call a majority of the votes cast for presidential electors was necessary, and J. F. Cooke, of Ballard, declared that no Democrat could be bound to abide by the result if the chair declared that an election. Then District Chairman W. A. Barry, Eaton's door manager, said he would ask the chair to let them vote over again.

Named By Acclamation.

Railroad Commissioner MacD. Ferguson said Mr. Eaton had told him he would not accept the nomination unless he had a majority of all the votes, and Eaton nodded his head. On the next ballot all the free votes went to him, and Barry's manager, Judge Shemwell, moved his election by acclamation. All the candidates made speeches.

Morning Session.

At the morning session the credentials of the delegates from the Henderson and Ballard precincts were read. The delegates from both of whom happened to be Barry men, were lost and the Committee on Credentials reported. This gave a Barry delegate the opportunity to declare he was being robbed. However, the convention adjourned for a recess. The credentials were hunted up and the delegates were seated. Barry lost out on all the contests. The West Ballard precinct, of Carroll, was decided for John Davis, Carroll's candidate; the Ballard precinct, of Ballard, for John M. Moore, of Ballard, and the Gallatin precinct, of Paducah, for W. V. Eaton.

Report On Resolutions.

At the afternoon session the reports of the standing committees were adopted and the temporary organization was made permanent. The resolutions introduced by the Henderson and Ballard delegates, endorsed the attitude of the Democrats in Congress; denounced the Republican party for its high-tariff policy and the present State Administration for income tax; and declared for the enforcement of the law. The resolutions also declared the statement that any man could not receive a fair trial in Kentucky was false, and criticized Gov. Willson for the reckless use of the pardoning power.

Credentialed Committee Reports.

The committee on credentials, in addition to seating the contested delegations, adopted the rule that no one should vote unless he was a delegate or had the original proxy of a delegate. This cut out Kirbytown precinct, of Carroll, which was heated at times, the convention was at all times orderly and well under control.

Many Orators Present.

The nominations called for considerable interest. For Ballou county, James Nichols nominated John M. Moore, and for Harrison county, Alben Barker nominated W. V. Eaton. For Marshall county, Judge R. L. Shemwell nominated J. C. M. Day.

Balloting Begins.

On the first ballot Barry carried five precincts of Ballard, three precincts of Carroll, and two precincts of Marshall. Eaton carried two precincts of Ballard and two precincts of Marshall. Moore carried eight precincts of Ballard, one of Carroll and one of Marshall, with 1,308 votes.

ATTEMPT TO ESCAPE TAXES ON FRANCHISE

HENDERSON STREET RAILWAY COMPANY PLEADS POVERTY.

DIDN'T EVEN WANT TO PAY $11 ON ASSESSMENT.

COULDN'T GET OFF, HOWEVER.

Frankfort, Ky., April 27.—[Special.]—In spite of the argument that as the line is not making any money it should not be required to pay a franchise tax to the State, the Henderson Street Railway Company was assessed on its franchise at $5,000.

DAMAGE BY TORNADO IN KANSAS VILLAGES.

Wichita, Kan., April 28.—Louis Ayres, 78 years old, was killed to-day by a tornado at Douglas, Kan. J. J. Jones was seriously injured.

ATTEMPT TO ESCAPE TAXES ON FRANCHISE

Frankfort, Ky., April 27.—[Special.]—In spite of the argument that as the line is not making any money it should not be required to pay a franchise tax to the State, the Henderson Street Railway Company was assessed on its franchise at $5,000.

DAMAGE BY TORNADO IN KANSAS VILLAGES.

Wichita, Kan., April 28.—Louis Ayres, 78 years old, was killed to-day by a tornado at Douglas, Kan. J. J. Jones was seriously injured.

ATTEMPT TO ESCAPE TAXES ON FRANCHISE

Frankfort, Ky., April 27.—[Special.]—In spite of the argument that as the line is not making any money it should not be required to pay a franchise tax to the State, the Henderson Street Railway Company was assessed on its franchise at $5,000.

ABOLISHED TO BE KEPT IN PRISON

Young Turks Send Former Sultan To Saloniki.

Would Like Now To Get Hold of His Millions.

Mutineers Put To Death by Court-Martial.

PEOPLE ARE IN JOYFUL MOOD.

Constantinople, April 28.—The former ruler of the Empire, Abdul Hamid II, is to be kept a prisoner in a large house with walled grounds on a height overlooking Saloniki, which has lately been occupied by the Italian commander of the international gendarmerie. He is not to be put on trial, as has been widely reported in Constantinople. He is considered to be alive the law.

MINERS APPROVE NEW AGREEMENT

Scranton, Pa., April 28.—After weeks of negotiation, a new agreement between the miners and the operators was reached and tomorrow is expected to see the end of the controversy. The agreement was reached after a long and hard fight. The agreement was reached after a long and hard fight.

MR. LEWIS' BROTHER DEAD.

Scranton, Pa., April 28.—After weeks of negotiation, a new agreement between the miners and the operators was reached and tomorrow is expected to see the end of the controversy. The agreement was reached after a long and hard fight. The agreement was reached after a long and hard fight.

ATTEMPT TO ESCAPE TAXES ON FRANCHISE

Frankfort, Ky., April 27.—[Special.]—In spite of the argument that as the line is not making any money it should not be required to pay a franchise tax to the State, the Henderson Street Railway Company was assessed on its franchise at $5,000.

DAMAGE BY TORNADO IN KANSAS VILLAGES.

Wichita, Kan., April 28.—Louis Ayres, 78 years old, was killed to-day by a tornado at Douglas, Kan. J. J. Jones was seriously injured.

ATTEMPT TO ESCAPE TAXES ON FRANCHISE

Frankfort, Ky., April 27.—[Special.]—In spite of the argument that as the line is not making any money it should not be required to pay a franchise tax to the State, the Henderson Street Railway Company was assessed on its franchise at $5,000.

DAMAGE BY TORNADO IN KANSAS VILLAGES.

Wichita, Kan., April 28.—Louis Ayres, 78 years old, was killed to-day by a tornado at Douglas, Kan. J. J. Jones was seriously injured.

ATTEMPT TO ESCAPE TAXES ON FRANCHISE

Frankfort, Ky., April 27.—[Special.]—In spite of the argument that as the line is not making any money it should not be required to pay a franchise tax to the State, the Henderson Street Railway Company was assessed on its franchise at $5,000.

DAMAGE BY TORNADO IN KANSAS VILLAGES.

Wichita, Kan., April 28.—Louis Ayres, 78 years old, was killed to-day by a tornado at Douglas, Kan. J. J. Jones was seriously injured.

AT THE LIGHT

Senator Bacon Declares Platform Forms Are Written.

DISPOSED TO REGARD THEM WITH INDIFFERENCE.

MR. RAYNER HAS RADICALLY DIFFERENT VIEWS.

FOR CONSTITUTIONAL TARIFF.

Washington, April 28.—(Special.)—The debate in the Senate to-day pretty well demonstrated the fact that it is difficult to find an old-fashioned Democrat. Senator Simmons, of North Carolina, who is in favor of at least the Dingley rate of $2 a thousand feet on lumber, started the ball rolling in a set speech. His position was endorsed in a running colloquy by Senator Smith, of Maryland, and Senator Bacon, of Georgia. This gave the Republican Senators an opportunity to twist the Democrats for favoring a tariff with "industrial protection."

The Republicans pointed out that the last Democratic platform recently provided for free lumber, and naturally asked how the Democrats favoring a tariff on lumber could reconcile this with the plank in the platform. Senator Bacon explained that the platform was not at "midnight," and he was inclined to regard it with indifference.

Republucan Suggestion.

Fortunately Senator Rayner, of Maryland, was on the floor and promptly repudiated the suggestion that Democrats were protectionists. "I want every Republican Senator to understand," he said, "that I am not a protectionist, no matter what other Democratic Senators may say. I am a free trader, and for no other purpose, and I propose to stand strictly upon the Dingley rate of $2 a thousand feet on lumber, which has been the rate for the last quarter of a century."

Brown Opens Debate.

When the discussion of the tariff was resumed to-day, Mr. Brown, of Nebraska, spoke to his amendment recently introduced providing for a constitutional amendment authorizing an income tax. He argued that the people of the United States should have the opportunity of voting on the question in order that the validity of such a law never would be questioned.

"We owe this to the people," he said, "because there has long been an earnest and determined demand for an equitable income tax."

Mr. Brown was interrupted by Mr. Rayner, of Maryland, who insisted that Congress already had the power to lay and collect taxes on incomes and that even were the amendment to be adopted it would be necessary to have an appropriation.

Paynter Takes a Hand.

Mr. Paynter, of Kentucky, interjected that the Supreme Court had decided that States, as now constituted, might change their former opinion, holding an income tax unconstitutional. He said that he was ready to support any bill providing for such a tax.

Dixon Asks a Question.

"How do you square your advocacy of a tariff on lumber with the declaration of the National Democratic platform of 1908?" Mr. Dixon, of Michigan, inquired. Mr. Simmons asserted that there was no difficulty about that. That platform, he maintained, declared for a tariff for revenue, and he said that the Dingley rate on lumber was more than a revenue rate.

Mr. Simmons denied that lumber prices had been fabulously high, and that any great fortunes had been made in manufacturing lumber in the United States.

The present crusade against a duty on lumber, Mr. Simmons charged, had been instigated by speculators in Canada. He maintained that there was no lumber shortage in the United States, and that the best purchase in the South of the corn, hay and wheat from the West was the sawmill lumber.

"These 80,000 men," he said, "feed 3,000,000 men and clothe 3,000,000 backs, and if you cheaper lumber duty this time by a few cents, you will be favoring the lumber king in the Republican platform. Mr. Rayner took issue with this, saying that the tariff was a revenue rate, and that it was quite usual to refer to Senators as a whole."

"Does not the Senator expect that a majority of Senators on that side will vote for a lumber tariff?" inquired Mr. Aldrich of Mr. Rayner.

The Maryland Senator quickly retorted that he would not vote for it. And then his colleague, Mr. Smith, arose and put himself on record as favoring such a proposition on the basis that the duty proposed was a revenue one.

Mr. Aldrich declared that Senators were in a fair way to compose their differences as to lumber. "Now let us vote this question of names," he said. "It is the same whether you call it tariff for protection or tariff for revenue."

Mr. Bacon asked if Mr. Aldrich would bring down his tariff on wearing apparel to 10 per cent.

Mr. Aldrich accused Mr. Bacon of talking like the Democratic platform by talking

INTERNATIONAL MASTER BOILERMAKERS' ASSOCIATION AT LOUISVILLE

PHOTOGRAPH TAKEN ON THE STEPS OF THE FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

RIVER FRONT

Dealt With by Dr. Zueblin In Lecture.

MAKES SUGGESTIONS CONCERNING BEARGRASS CREEK.

TELLS ABOUT CIVIC IMPROVEMENTS IN HARRISBURG, PA.

ADDRESSES LARGE AUDIENCE.

COMMITTEE IN QUANDARY

In Matter of Levying Duty On Printing Paper and Pulp.

Washington, April 28.—The Senate Finance Committee is understood to have practically decided to place a duty of 35 per cent on printing paper and of 15 per cent on wood pulp, which is a slight reduction from the Dingley rate in both cases. A canvass of the Senate has, however, almost convinced the committee that it will be very difficult, if not impossible, to get any duty through, and as a consequence the committee is in a quandary as to how to proceed further.

The committee is giving a favorable ear to the suggestion of Mr. Aldrich, of the committee does not embrace petroleum products, as it is believed that the maximum rate in the hands of the Chief Executive without giving him such latitude as to permit him to impose a duty on the article of his own choice.

"I submit," he said, "that there can be no more cruel repression of an industry than by law adding 30 per cent to the cost of its production and then forcing it into competition on the one hand with the foreign product, which on account of the difference in labor cost, stumpage cost, and the cost of transportation, can be produced at a lower cost than the other hand forcing a competition with a product of our own country, the price of which has been advanced 30 per cent by the protective tariff."

AGED SENATE CHAPLAIN

TAKEN ILL IN BOSTON.

Boston, April 28.—The Rev. Dr. Edward Everett Hale, chaplain of the United States Senate, was attacked by illness, which on his way from Washington to this city to-day. Members of his household said to-night that he was resting comfortably and that his condition was not serious.

NEW YORK'S SOCIAL SIDE

Public Entertaining a Popular Feature of Metropolitan Life.

WITH THE ST. REGIS HOTEL AS A CENTER

Formal and informal dinners, private repasts, and elaborate banquets are marked features of New York's social life of the present day. Public dining as an art is being cultivated in a more and more pronounced manner, and other forms of entertainment. All of New York's modern hotels have recognized the growing tendency and have catered to it most liberally. Grand ceremonial banquets and elaborate private parties are given at the St. Regis Hotel, the newest public house—and these in addition to the main public dining-rooms. The St. Regis offers exquisite and famous restaurants of London and Paris, but at rates no higher than those charged by other first-class New York hotels, and with facilities for large and small parties second to no other hotel in the city. In the matter of rooms, the St. Regis offers notable features of economy, for rooms may be had there as low as $3 and $4 a day for a large, handsome single bed room, or $5 a day (or $6 for two people), or $12 a day and up for a splendid suite or parlor, bedroom and private bath.

ARE A BLUE LOT

City Hall Bowed Down by Smith's Candidacy.

ADMINISTRATION SURPRISED AT HIS STRENGTH.

THREATS OF "NO PIE" TO HOLD DESERTERS IN LINE.

ARE MADE TO NO PURPOSE.

Constitutional reign in the Grinstead camp and among the machine Republicans yesterday as a result of the announcement of George Weinsinger Smith as candidate for the Republican nomination for Mayor. Groups of machine politicians were noticed in all quarters of the city during the day discussing the situation. While the machine leaders threatened all who dared to dissent from the Smith candidacy, they were surprised at his strength.

Upon an investigation Mr. Lee became convinced that the regular delegation from Clinton county was not yet organized and declared his intention to vote. Pressure was brought to bear upon him by other members of the delegation, but he refused to be intimidated and declared his intention to vote.

When it was seen that I would not yield or become a party to this dishonorable plan a man from Wayne county came to me at the hotel where I was stopping and engaged in conversation with me as to the attitude I had taken. When I gave him my reasons for my position he inquired my stand and suggested that we take a walk and talk the matter over. We went down the street to the edge of the town near a swamp, and I told him my surroundings particularly, when we came upon a survey in which a man was sitting and near which stood two Wayne county delegates. All three of these were large, powerful men, and I was not at all surprised to find them there. When I asked what it meant, they immediately seized me and said it meant that I was going to be taken to Monticello, and I was told that they had started to take me to Monticello and that I would go. In this manner they proceeded to take me to Monticello and the party started and drove rapidly until we had crossed the county line, where he said that Stanley is having opposition for reelection in his district, and Mr. Gaines, who gave me the American Tobacco Company and the Standard Oil Company will defeat him. He said that he was a Republican and that he was a well-known Republican as long as they will accept office. Stanley I undertook to telephone my friends.

Will Be Strong Defection.

The general opinion among the anti-machine leaders is that there is going to be a great falling off from Grinstead among those who have no hope of reward in office and who do not want any office. They say it goes without saying that almost everybody that the Mayor has put in office will stick to him, at least until they think he has no chance of winning the nomination. He also believes that some of the men who had a part in making up the Grinstead slate will eventually desert him. Said a well-known Republican: "It is the best thing that has happened since the election of Mr. Smith."

TO NAME DELEGATES

For Twelfth Ward In Republican District Convention.

At a mass meeting of representative Republicans of the Twelfth Ward last night delegates were devised for selecting twenty-four delegates to be voted for to represent the Twelfth ward in the district convention, May 18. John W. Reader, president of the Twelfth ward Club, was made chairman of the meeting last night. Mr. Reader was elected to the position of chairman of the committee of three, and the matter of becoming a candidate for Mayor under consideration for some time. The announcement of Mr. Smith has had the effect of Mr. Fort dismissing the matter from his mind.

Lightning Plays Some Very Queer Pranks.

FLIRTS WITH MEMBERS OF L. FREDERICK'S FAMILY.

RELIEVES ONE MAN OF SHOES AND SOCKS.

TEARS UP THE FURNITURE.

No Slate For Mr. Smith.

It is not believed that George Weinsinger Smith will be burdened with any attached flicker. Mr. Smith has announced that he is not the candidate of any faction or any clique and that he proposes to make his campaign on a basis of universal suffrage. He is also a well-known Republican and has been a member of the Grinstead slate.

Many queer pranks, played by the lightning, were learned of yesterday by Magistrate S. S. Hollis, when he visited his neighbor, Lawrence Frederick, a gardener, who lives in Jacob's addition, near the Mansfield road, two miles from the city. Frederick's son, Theodore, who is also a gardener, was in his bed suffering from a severe cold when the lightning entered the residence by way of the chimney and struck one of the boys and one of Frederick's socks. The boy was not hurt, but the sock was torn and the lightning was seen to be in the room. Frederick, Jr., was seated on the steps of the house when the lightning struck the second story, which was a pet dog. Magistrate Hollis said that the lightning entered the residence by way of the chimney and struck one of the boys and one of Frederick's socks. The boy was not hurt, but the sock was torn and the lightning was seen to be in the room.

TEARS UP THE FURNITURE.

Many queer pranks, played by the lightning, were learned of yesterday by Magistrate S. S. Hollis, when he visited his neighbor, Lawrence Frederick, a gardener, who lives in Jacob's addition, near the Mansfield road, two miles from the city. Frederick's son, Theodore, who is also a gardener, was in his bed suffering from a severe cold when the lightning entered the residence by way of the chimney and struck one of the boys and one of Frederick's socks. The boy was not hurt, but the sock was torn and the lightning was seen to be in the room.

TEARS UP THE FURNITURE.

Many queer pranks, played by the lightning, were learned of yesterday by Magistrate S. S. Hollis, when he visited his neighbor, Lawrence Frederick, a gardener, who lives in Jacob's addition, near the Mansfield road, two miles from the city. Frederick's son, Theodore, who is also a gardener, was in his bed suffering from a severe cold when the lightning entered the residence by way of the chimney and struck one of the boys and one of Frederick's socks. The boy was not hurt, but the sock was torn and the lightning was seen to be in the room.

TEARS UP THE FURNITURE.

Many queer pranks, played by the lightning, were learned of yesterday by Magistrate S. S. Hollis, when he visited his neighbor, Lawrence Frederick, a gardener, who lives in Jacob's addition, near the Mansfield road, two miles from the city. Frederick's son, Theodore, who is also a gardener, was in his bed suffering from a severe cold when the lightning entered the residence by way of the chimney and struck one of the boys and one of Frederick's socks. The boy was not hurt, but the sock was torn and the lightning was seen to be in the room.

TEARS UP THE FURNITURE.

Many queer pranks, played by the lightning, were learned of yesterday by Magistrate S. S. Hollis, when he visited his neighbor, Lawrence Frederick, a gardener, who lives in Jacob's addition, near the Mansfield road, two miles from the city. Frederick's son, Theodore, who is also a gardener, was in his bed suffering from a severe cold when the lightning entered the residence by way of the chimney and struck one of the boys and one of Frederick's socks. The boy was not hurt, but the sock was torn and the lightning was seen to be in the room.

TEARS UP THE FURNITURE.

Many queer pranks, played by the lightning, were learned of yesterday by Magistrate S. S. Hollis, when he visited his neighbor, Lawrence Frederick, a gardener, who lives in Jacob's addition, near the Mansfield road, two miles from the city. Frederick's son, Theodore, who is also a gardener, was in his bed suffering from a severe cold when the lightning entered the residence by way of the chimney and struck one of the boys and one of Frederick's socks. The boy was not hurt, but the sock was torn and the lightning was seen to be in the room.

TEARS UP THE FURNITURE.

Many queer pranks, played by the lightning, were learned of yesterday by Magistrate S. S. Hollis, when he visited his neighbor, Lawrence Frederick, a gardener, who lives in Jacob's addition, near the Mansfield road, two miles from the city. Frederick's son, Theodore, who is also a gardener, was in his bed suffering from a severe cold when the lightning entered the residence by way of the chimney and struck one of the boys and one of Frederick's socks. The boy was not hurt, but the sock was torn and the lightning was seen to be in the room.

TEARS UP THE FURNITURE.

Many queer pranks, played by the lightning, were learned of yesterday by Magistrate S. S. Hollis, when he visited his neighbor, Lawrence Frederick, a gardener, who lives in Jacob's addition, near the Mansfield road, two miles from the city. Frederick's son, Theodore, who is also a gardener, was in his bed suffering from a severe cold when the lightning entered the residence by way of the chimney and struck one of the boys and one of Frederick's socks. The boy was not hurt, but the sock was torn and the lightning was seen to be in the room.

TEARS UP THE FURNITURE.

Many queer pranks, played by the lightning, were learned of yesterday by Magistrate S. S. Hollis, when he visited his neighbor, Lawrence Frederick, a gardener, who lives in Jacob's addition, near the Mansfield road, two miles from the city. Frederick's son, Theodore, who is also a gardener, was in his bed suffering from a severe cold when the lightning entered the residence by way of the chimney and struck one of the boys and one of Frederick's socks. The boy was not hurt, but the sock was torn and the lightning was seen to be in the room.

TEARS UP THE FURNITURE.

Many queer pranks, played by the lightning, were learned of yesterday by Magistrate S. S. Hollis, when he visited his neighbor, Lawrence Frederick, a gardener, who lives in Jacob's addition, near the Mansfield road, two miles from the city. Frederick's son, Theodore, who is also a gardener, was in his bed suffering from a severe cold when the lightning entered the residence by way of the chimney and struck one of the boys and one of Frederick's socks. The boy was not hurt, but the sock was torn and the lightning was seen to be in the room.

TEARS UP THE FURNITURE.

Many queer pranks, played by the lightning, were learned of yesterday by Magistrate S. S. Hollis, when he visited his neighbor, Lawrence Frederick, a gardener, who lives in Jacob's addition, near the Mansfield road, two miles from the city. Frederick's son, Theodore, who is also a gardener, was in his bed suffering from a severe cold when the lightning entered the residence by way of the chimney and struck one of the boys and one of Frederick's socks. The boy was not hurt, but the sock was torn and the lightning was seen to be in the room.

TEARS UP THE FURNITURE.

Many queer pranks, played by the lightning, were learned of yesterday by Magistrate S. S. Hollis, when he visited his neighbor, Lawrence Frederick, a gardener, who lives in Jacob's addition, near the Mansfield road, two miles from the city. Frederick's son, Theodore, who is also a gardener, was in his bed suffering from a severe cold when the lightning entered the residence by way of the chimney and struck one of the boys and one of Frederick's socks. The boy was not hurt, but the sock was torn and the lightning was seen to be in the room.

TEARS UP THE FURNITURE.

Many queer pranks, played by the lightning, were learned of yesterday by Magistrate S. S. Hollis, when he visited his neighbor, Lawrence Frederick, a gardener, who lives in Jacob's addition, near the Mansfield road, two miles from the city. Frederick's son, Theodore, who is also a gardener, was in his bed suffering from a severe cold when the lightning entered the residence by way of the chimney and struck one of the boys and one of Frederick's socks. The boy was not hurt, but the sock was torn and the lightning was seen to be in the room.

TEARS UP THE FURNITURE.

Many queer pranks, played by the lightning, were learned of yesterday by Magistrate S. S. Hollis, when he visited his neighbor, Lawrence Frederick, a gardener, who lives in Jacob's addition, near the Mansfield road, two miles from the city. Frederick's son, Theodore, who is also a gardener, was in his bed suffering from a severe cold when the lightning entered the residence by way of the chimney and struck one of the boys and one of Frederick's socks. The boy was not hurt, but the sock was torn and the lightning was seen to be in the room.

TEARS UP THE FURNITURE.

Many queer pranks, played by the lightning, were learned of yesterday by Magistrate S. S. Hollis, when he visited his neighbor, Lawrence Frederick, a gardener, who lives in Jacob's addition, near the Mansfield road, two miles from the city. Frederick's son, Theodore, who is also a gardener, was in his bed suffering from a severe cold when the lightning entered the residence by way of the chimney and struck one of the boys and one of Frederick's socks. The boy was not hurt, but the sock was torn and the lightning was seen to be in the room.

TEARS UP THE FURNITURE.

Many queer pranks, played by the lightning, were learned of yesterday by Magistrate S. S. Hollis, when he visited his neighbor, Lawrence Frederick, a gardener, who lives in Jacob's addition, near the Mansfield road, two miles from the city. Frederick's son, Theodore, who is also a gardener, was in his bed suffering from a severe cold when the lightning entered the residence by way of the chimney and struck one of the boys and one of Frederick's socks. The boy was not hurt, but the sock was torn and the lightning was seen to be in the room.

TEARS UP THE FURNITURE.

Many queer pranks, played by the lightning, were learned of yesterday by Magistrate S. S. Hollis, when he visited his neighbor, Lawrence Frederick, a gardener, who lives in Jacob's addition, near the Mansfield road, two miles from the city. Frederick's son, Theodore, who is also a gardener, was in his bed suffering from a severe cold when the lightning entered the residence by way of the chimney and struck one of the boys and one of Frederick's socks. The boy was not hurt, but the sock was torn and the lightning was seen to be in the room.

TEARS UP THE FURNITURE.

Many queer pranks, played by the lightning, were learned of yesterday by Magistrate S. S. Hollis, when he visited his neighbor, Lawrence Frederick, a gardener, who lives in Jacob's addition, near the Mansfield road, two miles from the city. Frederick's son, Theodore, who is also a gardener, was in his bed suffering from a severe cold when the lightning entered the residence by way of the chimney and struck one of the boys and one of Frederick's socks. The boy was not hurt, but the sock was torn and the lightning was seen to be in the room.

TEARS UP THE FURNITURE.

Many queer pranks, played by the lightning, were learned of yesterday by Magistrate S. S. Hollis, when he visited his neighbor, Lawrence Frederick, a gardener, who lives in Jacob's addition, near the Mansfield road, two miles from the city. Frederick's son, Theodore, who is also a gardener, was in his bed suffering from a severe cold when the lightning entered the residence by way of the chimney and struck one of the boys and one of Frederick's socks. The boy was not hurt, but the sock was torn and the lightning was seen to be in the room.

TEARS UP THE FURNITURE.

Many queer pranks, played by the lightning, were learned of yesterday by Magistrate S. S. Hollis, when he visited his neighbor, Lawrence Frederick, a gardener, who lives in Jacob's addition, near the Mansfield road, two miles from the city. Frederick's son, Theodore, who is also a gardener, was in his bed suffering from a severe cold when the lightning entered the residence by way of the chimney and struck one of the boys and one of Frederick's socks. The boy was not hurt, but the sock was torn and the lightning was seen to be in the room.

TEARS UP THE FURNITURE.

Many queer pranks, played by the lightning, were learned of yesterday by Magistrate S. S. Hollis, when he visited his neighbor, Lawrence Frederick, a gardener, who lives in Jacob's addition, near the Mansfield road, two miles from the city. Frederick's son, Theodore, who is also a gardener, was in his bed suffering from a severe cold when the lightning entered the residence by way of the chimney and struck one of the boys and one of Frederick's socks. The boy was not hurt, but the sock was torn and the lightning was seen to be in the room.

What to Cook?

Puzzled—"What to Cook?" What is there that will please everybody, and at the same time be nourishing and strengthening? You will never be in such a quandary with Faust Spaghetti in the house. You'll never have to rack your brains for new cooking ideas. Mealtime will cease to have the whip hand. The family will forget to grumble.

lifts the preparation of meals above the commonplace. It affords such a wonderful cooking variety that you're never without the ready means of preparing dishes that will take right hold of hungry appetites and bring the plates back for more. Besides, Faust Spaghetti is so economical that it means a great saving in grocers' and butchers' bills.

Only five and ten cents a package. Nearly all grocers sell it. Write for book of over 20 Faust Spaghetti recipes—sent free on request.

MAULL BROTHERS, St. Louis, Mo.

KIDNAP DELEGATE AT MOUNTAIN CONVENTION

FRANK M. LEE VICTIM OF A POLITICAL OUTRAGE.

FRIENDS OF CANDIDATE BACKER CARRY OUT DESIGN.

REPUBLICAN TACTICS EXPOSED

Monticello, Ky., April 28.—(Special.)—The Sixteenth senatorial district convention at Jamestown Monday developed a case of kidnapping almost equal to the Boyle-Whitely case. There was a close fight between George E. Backer, of Wayne county, and L. T. Neat, of Adair. A contesting delegation from Clinton county in favor of Mr. Backer left the convention at night, and the delegates of the other counties were left to elect a delegate.

Upon an investigation Mr. Lee became convinced that the regular delegation from Clinton county was not yet organized and declared his intention to vote. Pressure was brought to bear upon him by other members of the delegation, but he refused to be intimidated and declared his intention to vote.

When it was seen that I would not yield or become a party to this dishonorable plan a man from Wayne county came to me at the hotel where I was stopping and engaged in conversation with me as to the attitude I had taken. When I gave him my reasons for my position he inquired my stand and suggested that we take a walk and talk the matter over. We went down the street to the edge of the town near a swamp, and I told him my surroundings particularly, when we came upon a survey in which a man was sitting and near which stood two Wayne county delegates. All three of these were large, powerful men, and I was not at all surprised to find them there. When I asked what it meant, they immediately seized me and said it meant that I was going to be taken to Monticello, and I was told that they had started to take me to Monticello and that I would go. In this manner they proceeded to take me to Monticello and the party started and drove rapidly until we had crossed the county line, where he said that Stanley is having opposition for reelection in his district, and Mr. Gaines, who gave me the American Tobacco Company and the Standard Oil Company will defeat him. He said that he was a Republican and that he was a well-known Republican as long as they will accept office. Stanley I undertook to telephone my friends.

Will Be Strong Defection.

The general opinion among the anti-machine leaders is that there is going to be a great falling off from Grinstead among those who have no hope of reward in office and who do not want any office. They say it goes without saying that almost everybody that the Mayor has put in office will stick to him, at least until they think he has no chance of winning the nomination. He also believes that some of the men who had a part in making up the Grinstead slate will eventually desert him. Said a well-known Republican: "It is the best thing that has happened since the election of Mr. Smith."

TO NAME DELEGATES

For Twelfth Ward In Republican District Convention.

At a mass meeting of representative Republicans of the Twelfth Ward last night delegates were devised for selecting twenty-four delegates to be voted for to represent the Twelfth ward in the district convention, May 18. John W. Reader, president of the Twelfth ward Club, was made chairman of the meeting last night. Mr. Reader was elected to the position of chairman of the committee of three, and the matter of becoming a candidate for Mayor under consideration for some time. The announcement of Mr. Smith has had the effect of Mr. Fort dismissing the matter from his mind.

Lightning Plays Some Very Queer Pranks.

FLIRTS WITH MEMBERS OF L. FREDERICK'S FAMILY.

RELIEVES ONE MAN OF SHOES AND SOCKS.

TEARS UP THE FURNITURE.

No Slate For Mr. Smith.

It is not believed that George Weinsinger Smith will be burdened with any attached flicker. Mr. Smith has announced that he is not the candidate of any faction or any clique and that he proposes to make his campaign on a basis of universal suffrage. He is also a well-known Republican and has been a member of the Grinstead slate.

Many queer pranks, played by the lightning, were learned of yesterday by Magistrate S. S. Hollis, when he visited his neighbor, Lawrence Frederick, a gardener, who lives in Jacob's addition, near the Mansfield road, two miles from the city. Frederick's son, Theodore, who is also a gardener, was in his bed suffering from a severe cold when the lightning entered the residence by way of the chimney and struck one of the boys and one of Frederick's socks. The boy was not hurt, but the sock was torn and the lightning was seen to be in the room.

TEARS UP THE FURNITURE.

Many queer pranks, played by the lightning, were learned of yesterday by Magistrate S. S. Hollis, when he visited his neighbor, Lawrence Frederick, a gardener, who lives in Jacob's addition, near the Mansfield road, two miles from the city. Frederick's son, Theodore, who is also a gardener, was in his bed suffering from a severe cold when the lightning entered the residence by way of the chimney and struck one of the boys and one of Frederick's socks. The boy was not hurt, but the sock was torn and the lightning was seen to be in the room.

TEARS UP THE FURNITURE.

Many queer pranks, played by the lightning, were learned of yesterday by Magistrate S. S. Hollis, when he visited his neighbor, Lawrence Frederick, a gardener, who lives in Jacob's addition, near the Mansfield road, two miles from the city. Frederick's son, Theodore, who is also a gardener, was in his bed suffering from a severe cold when the lightning entered the residence by way of the chimney and struck one of the boys and one of Frederick's socks. The boy was not hurt, but the sock was torn and the lightning was seen to be in the room.

TEARS UP THE FURNITURE.

Many queer pranks, played by the lightning, were learned of yesterday by Magistrate S. S. Hollis, when he visited his neighbor, Lawrence Frederick, a gardener, who lives in Jacob's addition, near the Mansfield road, two miles from the city. Frederick's son, Theodore, who is also a gardener, was in his bed suffering from a severe cold when the lightning entered the residence by way of the chimney and struck one of the boys and one of Frederick's socks. The boy was not hurt, but the sock was torn and the lightning was seen to be in the room.

TEARS UP THE FURNITURE.

Many queer pranks, played by the lightning, were learned of yesterday by Magistrate S. S. Hollis, when he visited his neighbor, Lawrence Frederick, a gardener, who lives in Jacob's addition, near the Mansfield road, two miles from the city. Frederick's son, Theodore, who is also a gardener, was in his bed suffering from a severe cold when the lightning entered the residence by way of the chimney and struck one of the boys and one of Frederick's socks. The boy was not hurt, but the sock was torn and the lightning was seen to be in the room.

TEARS UP THE FURNITURE.

Many queer pranks, played by the lightning, were learned of yesterday by Magistrate S. S. Hollis, when he visited his neighbor, Lawrence Frederick, a gardener, who lives in Jacob's addition, near the Mansfield road, two miles from the city. Frederick's son, Theodore, who is also a gardener, was in his bed suffering from a severe cold when the lightning entered the residence by way

Courier-Journal.

Published—
DAILY, SUNDAY AND WEEKLY.
Office, cor. Fourth Ave. and Green St.
A Consolidation of
THE LOUISVILLE DAILY JOURNAL.
Louisville, Ky., Nov. 24, 1893.
LOUISVILLE DAILY DEMOCRAT.
Louisville, Ky., 1893.
MORNING COURIER.
Louisville, Ky., June 3, 1894.
First issued as the Courier-Journal November 8, 1895.

Rates.
Daily edition, one year, $5.00
Daily and Sunday edition, one year, 8.00
Daily and Sunday, one month, .75
Weekly edition, one year, 1.00

To City Subscribers.
Daily, delivered, .10 per week
Daily and Sunday, delivered, .15c per week
Daily and Sunday, delivered, 1 month, 65c

Postage.
Entered at the Louisville Post-office as second-class matter.
10, 12 and 14 pages ..... 1 cent
15, 16, 17 and 18 pages ..... 2 cents
19, 20, 21 and 22 pages ..... 3 cents
23, 24 and 25 pages ..... 4 cents
Sunday edition, with magazine, 4 cents

Communications.
All communications should be addressed to the Courier-Journal and not to individuals. If writers who submit MSS. for publication wish to have rejected articles returned they must in all cases send stamps. The editors are glad to examine MSS., but return postage must be included.

THURSDAY, APRIL 29, 1909

"Business."
Wednesday Evening, April 28.—The New York stock market was fairly active and strong, closing at the best prices of the day, which showed many gains of 1 to 2 points.

Money on call was steady at 1 1/2 to 2 per cent, ruling at 1 1/2. Time, 10 days, 1 1/2 cents; 30 days, 1 3/4 cents; 60 days, 1 3/4 cents; 90 days, 1 3/4 cents. Sterling exchange was firm.

The Chicago wheat market was strong on good cash demand for four and wheat, closing 1/2 to 1/4 higher. Corn, oats and provisions closed weak.

The cotton market opened steady at an advance of 2 to 4 points, developed an easy tone and final quotations were 19 to 20 points net lower.

The Chicago cattle market was steady,
the hog market higher and the sheep
market steady to the higher.

Remarks New York Tribune:
"Col. Waterson says that the Prohibition or Prohibitionist who claims to be a Democrat is not a Democrat, but a reactionary. A Prohibitionist candidate for President in 1912 would poll a large vote."

Maybe. There is catch enough on all sides to float a good-sized party. If the Republicans can divide the Democrats on Prohibition as they did on Free Silver, they might get another half century lease of power. That indeed is what they seem to be after.

The Good, the True, the Beautiful.
Was it not Col. Robert Ingersoll who taught to make good health contagious instead of disease? That, certainly, is a gospel of improvement and uplift which his most ardent critics would gladly have given support, and which has only to be mentioned to acquire votaries and missionaries.

The Good, the True and the Beautiful
are the ideals for which none needs
to blush, and which may well find outlet and expression in a zeal which, originally as it may, in health and animation, shall profitably develop into an intelligent and practical scheme of civilized betterment, symmetry and embellishment. Like charity, it is not a local enthusiasm; to be practical, it must begin at home; it would result in a very beautiful life Paris after an April
day, when the air is full of sunshine and laden with the fragrance of the garden, and the promise of the acacias
as the promise of the "jeune mariee," patience and alluring.

Somewhat of this spirit, part theory
and hope, part common-sense and commercial, has inspired Prof. Zeublin, man of enthusiasm married to experience and devoted, very wisely, to those noncontroversial and somewhat academic themes which touch our senses and leave our pockets untouched. The "Redemption of Harlarue," like "The Babblings of Babylon," is a subject sufficiently remote from the city all any city hall to arouse and inspire a pleasant glow of patriotic error. Nothing is nicer than to know that we are not as one of these, and that conviction is all the more flattering if it make a moderate demand on our credulity.

The Professor finds much to admire in Louisville and not a little to criticize; our location, our river and our climate, these being heaven-sent, of our refractory choosing and not of our making or marring, defeat him; we possess, says he, "the natural impulses for an ideal city," but he complains that, business being the first concern of the city, a beautiful street
is not perhaps the very amplitude
of its proportions which marks
out, naturally and all but inevitably,
for those noble and permanent monuments of piety and devotion, those churches, colleges and seminaries which duly fair to give to a remembrance
more generous and significant? Fourth street is narrow, it is true, and so are the Rue de la Paix in Paris, the Strand and Bond street in London, the Corso
in Rome, Montaigne de la Cour in Brussels, all shopping centers and arteries of fashion par excellence. Twenty-third street is not broad, neither is Forth Street in New York, Broadway, the three retail paradises of New York because commercialism, entering opportu-nally at the Washington Arch, gained victory as it drove home-life from Madison Square, and, with the ornate and impudence of a conqueror, carried the marks of Sybaritic luxury and the

an extravagance more than Parisian, up Fifth Avenue to the very portals of Central Park.

What may very properly be done on a city of the type of which Washington is at once the best and the best-known example; what may be achieved in time by adherence to the plans of a genius like Maj. L'Enfant, dealing with him in his day was little more than a dream, and scarcely so much as a counsel, of perfection; what a Baron Haussmann may accomplish for a Napoleon whose will is law and whose orders bottomless—that we must be content to admire, though we may not copy. And, indeed, why should we?
The beauty of a city is the reflection of its history, its civic spirit; the interpretation in terms of brick and mortar of a storied past, of a bustling present no less than of an ideal future. It is a cemetery as well as a nursery; it should remind while it points the way.
To be rectilinear is not necessarily to be right-minded, as Boston might quite appropriately remark; and what is new is not, in architecture any more than in life, conclusively and more than account either true or beautiful. For all the efforts of the Kaiser, Napoleon and Ratisbon more honestly and adequately speak for Germany than Berlin; and the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, magnificent and modern, will never be revered as are the spires of Ely seen dimly across the marshes.

Yet, whatever our teacher may effect
for uplift, for that we owe him thanks.
The civic spirit of Louisville is very real
and very earnest; it means to be up and doing, to build a future substantial,
well-ordered and well-founded, on a past of noble memories, in which the failures themselves were glorious and instructive, if not immediately helpful.
It may happen likely enough that it need hortatory guidance, and we have the professor's word that it is not past praying for.

If it should succeed in laying the
foundation for a new political party—
as is not infrequently surmised and even foreshadowed—to all intents and purposes availing the Southern end and
the Democratic party—we should have
a complete reversal of Sectional characteristics. The Gulf States of 1909
would exchange places with the New England States of 1850. The wave of abolition which swept over the North
would be repeated in a wave of Prohibition sweeping over the South. Much as the old Whig party melted into the
Know Nothing party, would the Democratic party melt into the Anti-Saloon League.

There are without doubt many Saloons in the larger towns and cities
which are as orderly and decent as the best-conducted hotels and clubs. As an institution, however, the Saloon takes
its name from the worse, not from the
better, Saloons; and, as an agency for
the distribution of drink it needs to be reformed altogether. Before it can be definitely amended, however, the habits
of the people must be changed.

The attempt precipitately and violently to extirpate the Saloon, is like
burning the house to roast the pig. It is to raise up in place of the Saloon
agencies yet more hurtful in their character, the drink cure unabated; the
evils of drink augmented by hypocrisy,
extortion and adulteration; the surface
of affairs slicked over by moral appearance laid in pharisaical profession,
whilst below the surface the pain-
staking emulger, the canting outlaw,
the sanctimonious conceiver of poison,
ply their nefarious but profitable vocations, not to the reason, of men, invoking the ignorance and innocence of women and children—yet, all the while
using the arts of political machine-
work upon money contributed through
the agency of Church organization—all
the while managed by shrewd, unscrupulous and ambitious men, disguised as philanthropists—it would flourish for a while, as most one-issue parties do, to
pete out at last in failure and shame,
leaving behind it a trail of immorality
and ruin.

There are some of the reasons why
the Courier-Journal has conceived it its
duty to warn the people of Kentucky,
to expose the character of a scheme of
confiscation based upon lines of sumptuous legislation—its wickedness, its futility, its far-reaching consequences—
and, asking all good and thoughtful
men to listen, to declare, to the rank
and file of its own party, that no man
can be a Prohibitionist and remain a Democrat.

It was currently remarked of the November election that one of its most potent surprises was furnished by the Socialist vote, which, in spite of
four years' active and intelligent propaganda and a leadership of surpassing
skill, not only showed no gain but evidenced a distinctively lower vitality in
a party whose growth as reflected in
the election of 1904, had assumed the proportions of a portent. This period
of stagnation, or more correctly speaking, of setback, has its parallel in England, where recent bye-elections have
been extremely disappointing to the labor candidates, who have found their
former supporters dividing and going
chiefly to the Unionist or Conservative
party rather than affiliating with the Liberals, among whom one would more
naturally look for them.

The causes which operate to produce
this change are the same in both cases;
they represent first a certain revul-
sion inseparable from persistent and unrewarded devotion to a cause which
is to-day as far from victory as in the past; next, the growth of a belief that
the better conditions aimed at are more likely to receive practical attainment in
the policies of one or the other of the great parties than in vain protest at the polls; and, finally, the tendency in times
of great political unrest and upheaval
to subordinate all hobbies and ideals to
the insistent demands of a paramount public issue. In England it is the question of national defense which dwarfs all others; on this side it is the pressing need of fiscal reform. Over
there the problem of unemployment has
been temporarily sidetracked, and the
great advances made by many municipalities in bringing about better conditions of life and work arouse for the present only a passive interest. The struggle for bread on the part of an
unorganized horde of individuals gives
place to national misgivings lest all
may not soon be engaged in a struggle
for existence.

In England the Socialist has at least
advanced so far as no longer to be confounded with the Anarchist; he is taking a hand in the Government and
securing results more palpable than fall
to the lot of the tariff reformer. What
he needs both here and there is a definition. It is easy enough to classify him
by a process of negation; we know
what he is not, but who can tell us just
what he is?

One thing we do know, however; that
behind the more subversive tendencies
of the discontented lies an unfaltering
belief in such a working system of Government, municipal and national, as
would do away with glaring inequalities. That is an ideal; it may be an unattainable one, and practical men
cannot long remain contented with harmonious ideals. In such a country as this
the dreamer who wears the Socialist
label can best supply his wants and
satisfy his needs by sinking his fads
and his follies, and reuniting himself in quarters where dreams sometimes
come true.

It is said that the doubt as to the
eligibility of Mayor Grinstead to succeed himself will be urged by the supporters of Mr. George Weissinger
Smith. The doubt about that eligibility
ought to be definitely and authoritatively settled, not only in the case of Mayor Grinstead, but of everyone else
similarly situated with reference to
any office included in the constitutional prohibition. It ought to have been settled before this. If Mayor Grinstead
should be re-elected it should then be settled before the election. Those who contend that such officials as the Mayor are eligible for re-election do
so on the plea that a man must serve
a full term in order to be ineligible;
that if he serves a year or a month or even a day less than a full term the constitutional provision does not apply to
him. The contention is a piece of chimerical logic which would nullify
the spirit and intention of the Constitution, as a man can use his office for
personal ends as well in a shorter term
as in a full term. The point ought to be removed from dispute by our
highest court.

Was it not Von Moltke who remarked
that he had perfected to the least considerable of details forty odd different
plans for the invasion of Great Britain,
but not one for getting out again? Those who are nursing and enjoying the
present scare, mindful of the first part
of the great strategist's saying, are
circulating a map showing a line of
fifty-four landings, beginning with the
remote forefathers of those who are now in tremor, but they overlook the
fact that most of those who landed
failed utterly to make a get-away and
had to surrender. With the command of the seas the best way for Great Britain to take care of an invading
army would be to let it land and then
make matchwork of its convoy.

Says the Augusta (Ga.) Chronicle:
"Henry Waterson asserts with some
show of reason that the Democrats
who are in the majority in the legislature are the same as the Democrats
who are in the majority in the legislature. But the trouble with that proposition is like the negro that they couldn't put in jail—he does been."

Oh, no, he hasn't. Leastways, not here in Kentucky. Down in Georgia
they would do anything "to keep
whisky from the nigger." All the same,
he who, claiming to be a Democrat,
says he is a Prohibitionist, or a Protectionist is simply a dashed old Pro-
tectionist.

There is no accounting for tastes.
Quite a number of children were present at the performance of Faust; that reminds one of the big audience of little ones attracted by the title to a
painful rendering of "The Doll's House," whose parents, one may fairly presume, have yet to learn that Rosen, like Goethe, is not meat "virgin-
lily puerile."

The Senate Finance Committee is
steadily eliminating the good features
of the Payne bill, having already replaced duties on lumber, wood pulp,
hides, iron ore and coal, and having
restored the outrageous rate on wool
tops. But who ever expected that Alderich would prove to be anything but
counter to a synonym for Disgrace?

The jury that brought in a verdict
of guilty and fixed Beach Hargis' punishment at a life's term in prison not
only performed a proper service to society—for whose protection courts are established and laws are made—but it
also did Hargis and his mother a good turn.

Instead of being depicted by the Chicago drainage canal, Lake Michigan is
now 8 inches higher than it was before the canal was opened. Lake Michigan appears to have gone "wet."

As a Rough Rider Aldrich is the smooth goods.

Women's Board to Meet.
The Women's Board of Foreign Missions
of the M. E. Church, South, opens its thir-
tieth annual session at the County Clerk's
office, Chattanooga, Thursday, continu-
ing through Tuesday, May 5. Delegates
from twenty-eight States and seven foreign missions will attend. Fifteen
men will be present, and the session will
close with a conference Sunday.

Women's Board to Meet.
The Women's Board of Foreign Missions
of the M. E. Church, South, opens its thir-
tieth annual session at the County Clerk's
office, Chattanooga, Thursday, continu-
ing through Tuesday, May 5. Delegates
from twenty-eight States and seven foreign missions will attend. Fifteen
men will be present, and the session will
close with a conference Sunday.

Women's Board to Meet.
The Women's Board of Foreign Missions
of the M. E. Church, South, opens its thir-
tieth annual session at the County Clerk's
office, Chattanooga, Thursday, continu-
ing through Tuesday, May 5. Delegates
from twenty-eight States and seven foreign missions will attend. Fifteen
men will be present, and the session will
close with a conference Sunday.

Women's Board to Meet.
The Women's Board of Foreign Missions
of the M. E. Church, South, opens its thir-
tieth annual session at the County Clerk's
office, Chattanooga, Thursday, continu-
ing through Tuesday, May 5. Delegates
from twenty-eight States and seven foreign missions will attend. Fifteen
men will be present, and the session will
close with a conference Sunday.

Women's Board to Meet.
The Women's Board of Foreign Missions
of the M. E. Church, South, opens its thir-
tieth annual session at the County Clerk's
office, Chattanooga, Thursday, continu-
ing through Tuesday, May 5. Delegates
from twenty-eight States and seven foreign missions will attend. Fifteen
men will be present, and the session will
close with a conference Sunday.

Women's Board to Meet.
The Women's Board of Foreign Missions
of the M. E. Church, South, opens its thir-
tieth annual session at the County Clerk's
office, Chattanooga, Thursday, continu-
ing through Tuesday, May 5. Delegates
from twenty-eight States and seven foreign missions will attend. Fifteen
men will be present, and the session will
close with a conference Sunday.

Women's Board to Meet.
The Women's Board of Foreign Missions
of the M. E. Church, South, opens its thir-
tieth annual session at the County Clerk's
office, Chattanooga, Thursday, continu-
ing through Tuesday, May 5. Delegates
from twenty-eight States and seven foreign missions will attend. Fifteen
men will be present, and the session will
close with a conference Sunday.

Women's Board to Meet.
The Women's Board of Foreign Missions
of the M. E. Church, South, opens its thir-
tieth annual session at the County Clerk's
office, Chattanooga, Thursday, continu-
ing through Tuesday, May 5. Delegates
from twenty-eight States and seven foreign missions will attend. Fifteen
men will be present, and the session will
close with a conference Sunday.

terical government; the crazy Round-headism of Barebones and Sheepshanks; the Know Nothingism of Ned Buntline and Bill Poole; the Abolitionism of John Brown of Ossawatimie—the end justifying the means—no discrimination and no scruple, no moderation and no reason, spoliation, consecration, annihilation to all who refuse to fall in and follow.

This is not temperance. It is intemperance. With local option carrying wherever it can be enforced there is no need for it. Its very pretext is specious. The object, however, is plain enough. If local option continues, the occupation of the League, and its leaders, like Othello's, will presently be gone; they will have to get out of business; and men so banded together, not only having achieved an easy living,
but having had a taste of power, do not willingly disband and disperse. Such is the actual milk in the coconut and will account for the progress and development of the agitation in Kentucky and elsewhere.

Nothing can be done in our day without machinery and money. The Anti-Saloon League, therefore, just like other associations possessed of a mission and meant to be operative has an organization all its own. This is exceptionally enterprising, aggressive and compact;
worldly-minded, earth earthy; as embodiment and revealed in the person of the man West, grossly rank. Although emanating for the most part from two religious denominations it claims to be nondenominational. Although advancing the propaganda of historic Federalism and axiomatic Republicanism, it claims to be nonpartisan.

If it should succeed in laying the
foundation for a new political party—
as is not infrequently surmised and even
foreshadowed—to all intents and purposes availing the Southern end and
the Democratic party—we should have
a complete reversal of Sectional characteristics. The Gulf States of 1909
would exchange places with the New England States of 1850. The wave of
abolition which swept over the North
would be repeated in a wave of Prohibition sweeping over the South. Much
as the old Whig party melted into the
Know Nothing party, would the Democratic party melt into the Anti-Saloon
League.

There are without doubt many Sal-
oons in the larger towns and cities
which are as orderly and decent as the best-conducted hotels and clubs. As an institution, however, the Saloon takes
its name from the worse, not from the
better, Saloons; and, as an agency for
the distribution of drink it needs to be reformed altogether. Before it can be definitely amended, however, the habits
of the people must be changed.

The attempt precipitately and violently to extirpate the Saloon, is like
burning the house to roast the pig. It
is to raise up in place of the Saloon
agencies yet more hurtful in their character, the drink cure unabated; the
evils of drink augmented by hypocrisy,
extortion and adulteration; the surface
of affairs slicked over by moral ap-
pearance laid in pharisaical profession,
whilst below the surface the pain-
staking emulger, the canting outlaw,
the sanctimonious conceiver of poison,
ply their nefarious but profitable vocations, not to the reason, of men, in-
voking the ignorance and innocence of
women and children—yet, all the while
using the arts of political machine-
work upon money contributed through
the agency of Church organization—all
the while managed by shrewd, unscrupulous and ambitious men, disguised as
philanthropists—it would flourish for a
while, as most one-issue parties do, to
pete out at last in failure and shame,
leaving behind it a trail of immorality
and ruin.

There are some of the reasons why
the Courier-Journal has conceived it its
duty to warn the people of Kentucky,
to expose the character of a scheme of
confiscation based upon lines of sumptu-
ous legislation—its wickedness, its
futility, its far-reaching consequences—
and, asking all good and thoughtful
men to listen, to declare, to the rank
and file of its own party, that no man
can be a Prohibitionist and remain a Democrat.

It was currently remarked of the November election that one of its most
potent surprises was furnished by the Socialist vote, which, in spite of
four years' active and intelligent propaganda and a leadership of surpassing
skill, not only showed no gain but evidenced a distinctively lower vitality in
a party whose growth as reflected in
the election of 1904, had assumed the
proportions of a portent. This period
of stagnation, or more correctly speaking, of setback, has its parallel in England, where recent bye-elections have
been extremely disappointing to the
labor candidates, who have found their
former supporters dividing and going
chiefly to the Unionist or Conservative
party rather than affiliating with the Liberals, among whom one would more
naturally look for them.

The causes which operate to produce
this change are the same in both cases;
they represent first a certain revul-
sion inseparable from persistent and
unrewarded devotion to a cause which
is to-day as far from victory as in the
past; next, the growth of a belief that
the better conditions aimed at are more
likely to receive practical attainment in
the policies of one or the other of the
great parties than in vain protest at the
polls; and, finally, the tendency in times
of great political unrest and upheaval
to subordinate all hobbies and ideals to
the insistent demands of a paramount public issue. In England it is
the question of national defense which
dwarfs all others; on this side it is the
pressing need of fiscal reform. Over
there the problem of unemployment has
been temporarily sidetracked, and the
great advances made by many municipalities in bringing about better conditions of life and work arouse for the present only a passive interest. The
struggle for bread on the part of an
unorganized horde of individuals gives
place to national misgivings lest all
may not soon be engaged in a struggle
for existence.

In England the Socialist has at least
advanced so far as no longer to be
confounded with the Anarchist; he is taking a hand in the Government and
securing results more palpable than fall
to the lot of the tariff reformer. What
he needs both here and there is a definition. It is easy enough to classify him
by a process of negation; we know
what he is not, but who can tell us just
what he is?

One thing we do know, however; that
behind the more subversive tendencies
of the discontented lies an unfaltering
belief in such a working system of Government, municipal and national, as
would do away with glaring inequalities. That is an ideal; it may be an
unattainable one, and practical men
cannot long remain contented with harmonious ideals. In such a country as this
the dreamer who wears the Socialist
label can best supply his wants and
satisfy his needs by sinking his fads
and his follies, and reuniting himself in quarters where dreams sometimes
come true.

It is said that the doubt as to the
eligibility of Mayor Grinstead to succeed himself will be urged by the sup-
porters of Mr. George Weissinger
Smith. The doubt about that eligibility
ought to be definitely and authorita-
tively settled, not only in the case of
Mayor Grinstead, but of everyone else
similarly situated with reference to
any office included in the constitutional prohibition. It ought to have been
settled before this. If Mayor Grinstead
should be re-elected it should then be settled before the election. Those
who contend that such officials as the Mayor are eligible for re-election do
so on the plea that a man must serve
a full term in order to be ineligible;
that if he serves a year or a month or
even a day less than a full term the
constitutional provision does not apply to
him. The contention is a piece of
chimerical logic which would nullify
the spirit and intention of the Constitution, as a man can use his office for
personal ends as well in a shorter term
as in a full term. The point ought to be removed from dispute by our
highest court.

Was it not Von Moltke who remarked
that he had perfected to the least considerable of details forty odd different
plans for the invasion of Great Britain,
but not one for getting out again? Those
who are nursing and enjoying the
present scare, mindful of the first part
of the great strategist's saying, are
circulating a map showing a line of
fifty-four landings, beginning with the
remote forefathers of those who are
now in tremor, but they overlook the
fact that most of those who landed
failed utterly to make a get-away and
had to surrender. With the command
of the seas the best way for Great Britain to take care of an invading
army would be to let it land and then
make matchwork of its convoy.

Says the Augusta (Ga.) Chronicle:
"Henry Waterson asserts with some
show of reason that the Democrats
who are in the majority in the legislature are the same as the Democrats
who are in the majority in the legislature. But the trouble with that proposition is like the negro that they
couldn't put in jail—he does been."

Oh, no, he hasn't. Leastways, not
here in Kentucky. Down in Georgia
they would do anything "to keep
whisky from the nigger." All the same,
he who, claiming to be a Democrat,
says he is a Prohibitionist, or a Pro-
tectionist is simply a dashed old Pro-
tectionist.

There is no accounting for tastes.
Quite a number of children were present at the performance of Faust; that
reminds one of the big audience of little ones attracted by the title to a
painful rendering of "The Doll's House," whose parents, one may fairly presume, have yet to learn that Rosen, like Goethe, is not meat "virgin-
lily puerile."

The Senate Finance Committee is
steadily eliminating the good features
of the Payne bill, having already re-
placed duties on lumber, wood pulp,
hides, iron ore and coal, and having
restored the outrageous rate on wool
tops. But who ever expected that Al-
derich would prove to be anything but
counter to a synonym for Disgrace?

The jury that brought in a verdict
of guilty and fixed Beach Hargis' punishment at a life's term in prison not
only performed a proper service to society—for whose protection courts are
established and laws are made—but it
also did Hargis and his mother a good
turn.

Instead of being depicted by the Chicago drainage canal, Lake Michigan is
now 8 inches higher than it was before the canal was opened. Lake Michigan appears to have gone "wet."

As a Rough Rider Aldrich is the
smooth goods.

Women's Board to Meet.
The Women's Board of Foreign Missions
of the M. E. Church, South, opens its thir-
tieth annual session at the County Clerk's
office, Chattanooga, Thursday, continu-
ing through Tuesday, May 5. Delegates
from twenty-eight States and seven foreign missions will attend. Fifteen
men will be present, and the session will
close with a conference Sunday.

Women's Board to Meet.
The Women's Board of Foreign Missions
of the M. E. Church, South, opens its thir-
tieth annual session at the County Clerk's
office, Chattanooga, Thursday, continu-
ing through Tuesday, May 5. Delegates
from twenty-eight States and seven foreign missions will attend. Fifteen
men will be present, and the session will
close with a conference Sunday.

Women's Board to Meet.
The Women's Board of Foreign Missions
of the M. E. Church, South, opens its thir-
tieth annual session at the County Clerk's
office, Chattanooga, Thursday, continu-
ing through Tuesday, May 5. Delegates
from twenty-eight States and seven foreign missions will attend. Fifteen
men will be present, and the session will
close with a conference Sunday.

Women's Board to Meet.
The Women's Board of Foreign Missions
of the M. E. Church, South, opens its thir-
tieth annual session at the County Clerk's
office, Chattanooga, Thursday, continu-
ing through Tuesday, May 5. Delegates
from twenty-eight States and seven foreign missions will attend. Fifteen
men will be present, and the session will
close with a conference Sunday.

Women's Board to Meet.
The Women's Board of Foreign Missions
of the M. E. Church, South, opens its thir-
tieth annual session at the County Clerk's
office, Chattanooga, Thursday, continu-
ing through Tuesday, May 5. Delegates
from twenty-eight States and seven foreign missions will attend. Fifteen
men will be present, and the session will
close with a conference Sunday.

Women's Board to Meet.
The Women's Board of Foreign Missions
of the M. E. Church, South, opens its thir-
tieth annual session at the County Clerk's
office, Chattanooga, Thursday, continu-
ing through Tuesday, May 5. Delegates
from twenty-eight States and seven foreign missions will attend. Fifteen
men will be present, and the session will
close with a conference Sunday.

Women's Board to Meet.
The Women's Board of Foreign Missions
of the M. E. Church, South, opens its thir-
tieth annual session at the County Clerk's
office, Chattanooga, Thursday, continu-
ing through Tuesday, May 5. Delegates
from twenty-eight States and seven foreign missions will attend. Fifteen
men will be present, and the session will
close with a conference Sunday.

Women's Board to Meet.
The Women's Board of Foreign Missions
of the M. E. Church, South, opens its thir-
tieth annual session at the County Clerk's
office, Chattanooga, Thursday, continu-
ing through Tuesday, May 5. Delegates
from twenty-eight States and seven foreign missions will attend. Fifteen
men will be present, and the session will
close with a conference Sunday.

Women's Board to Meet.
The Women's Board of Foreign Missions
of the M. E. Church, South, opens its thir-
tieth annual session at the County Clerk's
office, Chattanooga, Thursday, continu-
ing through Tuesday, May 5. Delegates
from twenty-eight States and seven foreign missions will attend. Fifteen
men will be present, and the session will
close with a conference Sunday.

Women's Board to Meet.
The Women's Board of Foreign Missions
of the M. E. Church, South, opens its thir-
tieth annual session at the County Clerk's
office, Chattanooga, Thursday, continu-
ing through Tuesday, May 5. Delegates
from twenty-eight States and seven foreign missions will attend. Fifteen
men will be present, and the session will
close with a conference Sunday.

to-day as far from victory as in the
past; next, the growth of a belief that
the better conditions aimed at are more
likely to receive practical attainment in
the policies of one or the other of the
great parties than in vain protest at the
polls; and, finally, the tendency in times
of great political unrest and upheaval
to subordinate all hobbies and ideals to
the insistent demands of a paramount public issue. In England it is
the question of national defense which
dwarfs all others; on this side it is the
pressing need of fiscal reform. Over
there the problem of unemployment has
been temporarily sidetracked, and the
great advances made by many municipalities in bringing about better conditions of life and work arouse for the present only a passive interest. The
struggle for bread on the part of an
unorganized horde of individuals gives
place to national misgivings lest all
may not soon be engaged in a struggle
for existence.

In England the Socialist has at least
advanced so far as no longer to be confounded with the Anarchist; he is
taking a hand in the Government and

See Our Line of Manhattan
Shirts
at $1.50

Fine madras; plain or plaid; same style, fit and finish every way that characterize the finer Manhattans. Ask to see "THE $1.50 MAN-HATTAN".

Finer Manhattans,
Imported madras,
and linens, at $2 to $3.50—the full line to choose from.

Members R. M. A.
R. R. Fares Refunded.
LEVY'S
Third &
Market.
The Bright Spot
In Louisville

Courier-Journal

THURSDAY, APRIL 29, 1939

LOWER RATES

Demand of Fire Underwriters by Water Company.

MATTER TAKEN UP BY BOARD OF TRADE.

SPECIAL COMMITTEE NAMED TO LOOK INTO QUESTION.

MAINS HAVE BEEN EXTENDED.

BIG DELEGATION

To Attend T. P. A. Convention From New Albany

MRS. ADDIE LOBACH WINS ORA-TORICAL CONTEST.

CHURCH CARNIVAL BEGINS TO-MORROW AFTERNOON.

NEW COMPLETED ORGANIZATION.

The Indiana Travelers' Protective Association Convention will be convened in Evansville Saturday, May 1, will be in session several days. New Albany will send a large delegation, the following being in the list:

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hartman, Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Sauer, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Zink, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. E. Head, Mr. and Mrs. George J. Schwenk, Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kammerer, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Neutzel, Mr. and Mrs. H. Bornwasser, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. W. Schindler, Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Meyer, S. S. Stalcup, C. H. Newhouse, C. H. Haggerty, Edna E. Haggerty, John E. Platt, J. A. S. Guthrie, J. W. Derick, L. L. Applegate, Roscoe, Edna, Dr. S. Woodhouse, and John W. Galtier.

For Uplifting of Race.

An organization has been effected among the ministers of the colored churches of New Albany, and the principal of the colored schools there, to be known as the "Ministers' and Principals' Association," the object being the betterment of the members of the race in that city.

E. Harper, principal of the Division-street school, has been elected president of the association, and John A. Hodges, of the Scribner High School, is secretary and treasurer. The association will urge the colored churches to have their members clean up camps, and take greater pride in their home surroundings and the moral betterment of their children.

Wins Silver Medal.

The silver medal in the oratorical contest at Trinity M. E. church, New Albany, given by the T. P. A., was awarded to Mrs. Addie Lobach. Her subject was "The House of the Future." Other contestants were Mrs. Arnold, Mrs. Fannie McDaniel, Mrs. Martha Flanagan, Mrs. Rona Stockdale and Mrs. Joseph.

Interpreted with the orations were composed of Mrs. Anna Smith and her daughters, Misses Carol and Helen Smith, and her son, Anna Smith, Jr., was a feature.

Carnival of Days.

One of the features of the great carnival of days and bazaar, to be held at the Second Presbyterian church, Louisville, after noon and night, will be the sample booth. The entertainment of the church, and they have received from the leading merchants and business firms a large variety of samples, which will be sold at bargain prices. The booth will be in the housekeeping line.

Plan To Raise Funds.

The Young Men's Christian Association of New Albany has taken an active interest in the T. P. A. convention, and that city by the members of the various clubs, and proposes to organize a campaign of fund-raising, in which they hope to raise money to pay off a debt of a few hundred dollars.

Ten Doctors

Said He Would Die

"In 1903 we wrote you regarding my husband, who was suffering from heart trouble. He was superannated by the North Georgian Conference. Ten doctors at different times said he would die. You advised Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy and Restorative Nervine; we did as advised, and improvement was apparent from the very first. He recovered and the Conference in 1904 gave him a charge. He never felt better, although he has very heavy work and does a great deal of camp meeting work. I am so glad we took your advice and gave him the medicine, and feel that I ought to let you know of the wonderful good results from its use."

MRS. T. S. EDWARDS,
Milner, Ga.

This proves what Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy will do. Get a bottle from your druggist and take it according to directions. It does not matter whether your heart is merely weak, or you have organic trouble, if it does not benefit you take the empty bottle to your druggist and get your money back.

WARNING NOTE

Received by Farmer of Bethlehem Township.

ORDERED TO PLACE $1,000 IN BUCKET NEAR POND.

LIVELY FIGHT ON OVER SELEC-TION OF TRUANT OFFICER.

AGAIN BEHIND PRISON WALLS.

Thomas R. Stevens, a well-to-do farmer whose home is in Bethlehem township, Clark county, Ind., twenty-five miles east of Jeffersonville, escaped being victimized out of $1,000 through having the nerve to take matters in his own hands. One week ago today he received a letter from the postmaster of Nabb, Ind., a small station on the Baltimore and Ohio southwestern railroad, and about ten miles from Bethlehem. The note warned Stevens that he did not have $1,000 in a bucket he would find on the bank of a large pond near his home his bank and house would be burned.

The threat did not frighten Stevens, but thinking it possible that a person at least might be destroyed, he decided to do as he was told. The note warned Stevens to be prompt and not to ask any questions. If he wanted to escape heavy financial loss, the string was pulled.

After arming himself Stevens went to a friend he knew could be trusted and the receipt of the letter was made known to him. The two went to the place where the note said the vessel would be found, and the vessel was there. Picking it up, Stevens found the bucket had a string attached to it, the end of which was tied to something on the far side of the little pond. The string was pulled, giving the string a jerk Stevens broke it from its fastenings and pulled it to the pond. The vessel was made known to him. The two went to the place where the note said the vessel would be found, and the vessel was there. Picking it up, Stevens found the bucket had a string attached to it, the end of which was tied to something on the far side of the little pond. The string was pulled, giving the string a jerk Stevens broke it from its fastenings and pulled it to the pond. The vessel was made known to him.

Col. W. A. Longmiller, of this city, has been ordered to take command of the Fourth regiment, consisting of companies at Evansville, Martinsville and Indianapolis. The regiment left yesterday for Edinburg to attend a banquet of the United States Army.

The C. W. Imman Ice and Cold Storage Company awarded the contracts yesterday for the erection of a new plant. Phil Kahl received the contract for the carpenter work, and Miles Kehoe the brick work. The new plant, to be built on a 60,000 brick will be in the building.

Ellis Jones and Dora Baker, colored, were arrested Tuesday morning by Sheriff Stitzman and Probation Officer Joseph H. Kraft on grand jury indictments charging them with operating disorderly houses. They were placed in jail to await trial at the next term of the Floyd Circuit Court.

Lillie Gardner appeared in the Juvenile Court yesterday morning and was fined $20 and sentenced to serve six months in the county jail by Judge W. C. Utz on a charge of deserting her children. She was arrested by the sheriff on Monday, May 2, and the other two years. She was arrested by Probation Officer Joseph H. Kraft.

The funeral of Griffin Williams, who died Tuesday afternoon from the effects of a heart attack, will be held at the street house, will take place this afternoon from the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Williams, 17 West Seventh street. The coroner, Dr. W. L. Richards, has not yet returned a finding.

The New Albany teams that will take part in the athletic meet in Jeffersonville next Saturday at the Y. M. C. A. team, the High School, the Adoniam Club, the Evansville team, and the Columbus team. The New Albany team, the meet will be one of the most interesting ever held in Indiana, and promises to be well attended.

The annual memorial services of New Albany, Ind., will be held at the Union Baptist church, at 10 o'clock Sunday afternoon, June 12. A joint committee of the company and the church will have charge of the services. The program of exercises.

The annual election of officers of the Amman's Women's Club was held yesterday afternoon at the home of Miss Edith Gwin, East Third street, and officers were elected as follows: President, Mrs. Horace Pierce; vice president, Mrs. George McCord at her home on East Market street.

The Rev. L. C. Jeffrey, pastor of Wesley chapel, will deliver a memorial address to the Civil War veterans Sunday morning, May 1.

R. E. Jones, former resident of this city, who has been visiting relatives here for several days, was returned to his home at Chattanooga, Tenn.

Robert Dietz arrived yesterday from New York, having been called by the death of his mother, Mrs. Reinhardt Dietz, whose funeral will take place this afternoon.

A meeting of Pythagoras Lodge was held last night at the hall in the Floyd County Bank building, in the second degree.

Miss Anna C. Moore and Thomas A. Coleman are to be married this evening by the Rev. R. W. Rogers at the home of the bride on the Charleston road, east of the city.

Albert Freeman, a former resident of Salem, who was arrested in a railroad yard at Worth, Tex., two weeks ago, died Thursday night from the effects of the injuries.

Frank W. Carr, of Charleston, will represent the New Albany Presbytery in the General Assembly of the Presbyterian church of the United States to be held at Denver May 12.

John V. Kline, a veteran of the Civil War, and a former resident of this city, died a few days ago at his home in Dayton, O. He was seventy-three years old and leaves a family.

The revival services conducted at Wesley chapel for the last two weeks, pastored by the Rev. L. C. Jeffrey, have closed. There have been a number of conversions to the church.

Mrs. A. E. Taylor, of Nevada, Mo., and William Clemenson, of Millport, O., have been called to the city by the critical illness of their father, Peter Clemenson, 111 Constitution street.

It has been announced by the temperance people of Floyd county that they will file a petition with the Board of County Commissioners Monday morning for holding a county option election.

Memorial services will be conducted Sunday morning at the German Evangelical church by Manzanita tribe of Red Men, in special honor of the Rev. F. P. Weathers.

W. H. Boone, of the firm of Ewing & Boone, has gone to Brandenburg, Ky., to defend Frederick Boone, who is to be tried in the Meade Circuit Court on a charge of having assaulted his niece.

Mrs. Herman Bradford, a former resident of this city, who has been dangerously ill at her home in Dunkirk, N. Y., is in a critical condition, and fears are entertained by her friends that she will not recover.

Mrs. Jacob Best, for the last two weeks confined to his home on East Spring street, near Vincennes street, from a severe attack of pneumonia, was able to be at his office yesterday morning.

Norman Beach, the 8-year-old son of the Rev. A. R. Beach, pastor of Centenary, fell from a fruit tree in the parsonage yard yesterday and fractured his collarbone. The fracture was reduced by Dr. J. P. Weathers.

On account of the death and funeral of Mrs. R. Dietz, sister of J. A. Kraft, a member of the Rev. E. H. Kraft's committee, the dance that was to have been given to-night by New Albany Lodge of Elks was postponed until Thursday night, May 6.

The funeral of Mrs. Reinhardt Dietz will take place this afternoon at the family home, 115 West Market street, will be conducted by the Rev. E. G. Kuenzler, pastor of the German Evangelical church, and the burial will be in Fairview cemetery.

Margaret Overton, a colored girl of 14 years old, was arrested by Chief of Police on a charge of stealing a watch from the Golden Gate State with a view to getting ready for the threatened invasion of California by the Armenian League and local option movement.

Returned to Prison.

Capt. Charles W. Fox, a railroad detective from Cincinnati, arrived at the Indiana Reformatory in Jeffersonville yesterday morning, after having been released from a parole violation. Fox was arrested through the method adopted by the reformatory of broadcasting pictures of men who violate their paroles or make their escape. A large number of pictures have been made since the system was adopted. Fox was a brother of a man who lives at 406 Baymiller street, Cincinnati, and when Capt. Fox was held of one of the prisoners in the reformatory, he was a young man and his wife was finally released.

Originally came from Cordron, Harrison county, Ind., on December 3, 1930, Fox was sentenced to three years in the reformatory on a conviction of three years of petty larceny and was paroled on July 20, after serving 18 months. Fox was reported regularly for a time, but finally became delinquent and the officials at the reformatory sent a tracer out after him.

NOTES OF THE NEWS FROM JEFFERSONVILLE.

A man of $41.30 on an account for goods was allowed Fulton, Conway of Louisville, in the Clark Circuit Court yesterday against the estate of William S. Dellinger.

Clarence Gwin, a former Justice of the Peace at Sellersburg, but now a clerk in a Louisville grocery store, was married last night to Miss J. A. Ward.

The funeral of Mrs. Fannie E. Reynolds, who died at her home in Ohio Falls Tuesday, will take place this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Eastern cemetery, at the Eastern cemetery, this city.

Default was made by the defendant when the divorce action of Elizabeth against Frank Briggs was called in the Circuit Court yesterday and Judge Montgomery instructed George C. Kopp, prosecuting attorney, to look after his interests.

An apron bazaar will be given by the Ladies Aid Society of the Port Fulton Methodist Episcopal church in the Ecken building, Spring street, between Market and Chestnut streets, Saturday afternoon and evening. The affair will include social features.

On an appeal from Magistrate Henri Brod, of Charleston, a transcript has been filed in the Circuit Court in the suit of Ada A. O'Connell against the Baltimore and Ohio railroad for a bus loan, judgment having been given for $24.00 by Judge DeBrot.

An order was issued by Judge Montgomery yesterday that Curtis W. Ball, Circuit Clerk, shall pay over to Mrs. Kate O'Brien, the home of her late husband, that was due her after Margaret Donahue, who is now dead, from the estate of Mary Lane.

Mrs. Eliza Ann Owen, who was born in Owen township on December 28, 1830, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. George B. Blood, at Kansas, Ill., a few days ago of senility. She was the widow of James Owen, to whom she was married near Charleston in 1833.

The damage action of John Dorn, by his next friend, Lilla Dorn, against the Marion Construction Company and others, was dismissed in the Circuit Court yesterday. The entry showed that the company had been made for $10, the defendant to pay the cost of the action.

Clarence Hamilton, colored, who was arrested on the charge of assault and battery on Mame Jackson, was taken to jail to kill and who pleaded guilty to simple assault and battery several days ago, has been fined $10 and costs by Judge Montgomery and sent to jail for 60 days.

Vernon Ross, an inmate of the county almshouse, near Charleston, is believed to be fatally ill. He is nearly 80 years old and his grandfather was one of the early judges of the county. His home was formerly in this city and for many years he was a well-known character.

Frank Higgins, who came to the In-

Save $10 to $50 on Every $100

YOU SPEND THIS SEASON ON

FURNITURE

The reductions we have made, incident to our

REMOVAL SALE

enable you to do it. Then you have practically a limitless assortment to choose from, as our stock has never been larger or more complete.

INVESTIGATE THIS SALE.

462 Fourth Avenue.

KEISKER'S

Look For Removal Sale Signs.

"ANITA" SPARKLING WATER for HIGH BALLS.

VISIT Our Showrooms and Be Convinced That the Best, Guaranteed Enameled Plumbing Fixtures Are Cheapest in the Long Run.

The Ahrens & Onig Co.
(Incorporated.)
319-323 WEST MAIN STREET, LOUISVILLE, KY.

We carry all kinds of lumber and manufacture sash, doors, blinds and interior trimmings, soft and hard woods.

The Frey Planing Mill Co.
SUCCESSORS TO
Lortz & Frey Planing Mill Co.

We Loan Money

To Housekeepers $10 and Upwards

If you are interested we will be glad to tell you all about it without charge. The average person does not realize what a benefit an institution of this kind really is. Suppose you have a credit good, each one wants something each week. Would it not be a great deal better if you came to us for obtained money, ready cash, than to go to a bank and get a loan? We will loan you money for so long a time. Courteous and obliging employees.

Fidelity Loan Co.
402 S. Fourth St.
Over Kirby's 10c Store.

Wedding Gifts

An exquisite assortment From which to choose—Things that will please.

KLAUBER 222 Fourth Ave.

NOW IS THE TIME

To test our coal. You'll need one load this season before you lay in your new supply. One load of our Jellico Block will convince you of its quality and how much you can save in your fuel bill.

1 Ton $3.75. A ton of coal from us means 2,000 Lbs.

J. K. Leahy & Son, 243 Fifth St.

Anchor Stove and Range Co.
(Incorporated.)

The Price You Pay

To-day for a Gas Range is but a small part of the price you will pay for gas in the lifetime of a gas range. It is, therefore, economy to buy the best gas range—one that uses the least gas and will stand the hardest usage for the greater number of years. It is to your own interest to buy the

Quick Meal Gas Ranges
SOLD BY
GEHER & SON
215 W. Market St., nr. Second.

COAL

REDUCED.
Anthracite, April and May, ton, $7.75
St. Bernard Lump, per ton, $3.00
St. Bernard Egg Nut, per ton, $3.00
St. Bernard Nut, per ton, $2.50
Pocahontas Lump, per ton, $4.40
Pocahontas Fine Run, per ton, $4.00
Pocahontas, del. to city, per ton, $3.75
Prompt Service. Yards All Parts of City.
ST. BERNARD MINING CO.

Both Phones 932. 342 W. MAIN ST. Also South Louisville, New Albany and Jeffersonville, Ind.

5 Per Cent. Net.

The FIRST MORTGAGE REAL ESTATE GOLD BONDS issued by the Louisville Title Company are now being sold to the public at 95 cents. These bonds are secured by improved real estate worth two to four times the amount of the loan. You can inspect the property and select bonds to suit.

LOUISVILLE TITLE CO.
234 Fifth St., Bet. Main and Market.

$6.00 CHICAGO
New York Central Lines
143 Fourth Avenue.

Flowers

For Every Occasion
QUALITY AND PRICES ARE RIGHT

As Members of the R. M. A. We Retain the Right to Fare to Out-of-Town Customers.

AUGUST R. BAUMER FLORIST
Masonic Temple, Fourth and Chestnut.
Special Attention to Out-of-Town Orders.

SCANLON COAL CO.
(Incorporated.)
TELEPHONES 405

FOR Asthma, Bronchitis, Difficult Breathing, USE Omega Oil

Pour a teaspoonful of Omega Oil in a cup of boiling water, hold the mouth and nose close to the cup, and inhale the rising steam. Also rub the throat and chest with the Oil. It gives quick relief. 10c, 25c, 50c.

ITEMS OF INTEREST FROM NW ALBANY.

I. P. Park, Dr. R. W. Harris, Casper Felock and Harry Campbell compose a fishing party that is at Indian creek, near Greenville.

The Altar Guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church will meet at the home of Mrs. Gertrude McCord at her home on East Market street.

The Rev. L. C. Jeffrey, pastor of Wesley chapel, will deliver a memorial address to the Civil War veterans Sunday morning, May 1.

R. E. Jones, former resident of this city, who has been visiting relatives here for several days, was returned to his home at Chattanooga, Tenn.

Robert Dietz arrived yesterday from New York, having been called by the death of his mother, Mrs. Reinhardt Dietz, whose funeral will take place this afternoon.

A meeting of Pythagoras Lodge was held last night at the hall in the Floyd County Bank building, in the second degree.

Miss Anna C. Moore and Thomas A. Coleman are to be married this evening by the Rev. R. W. Rogers at the home of the bride on the Charleston road, east of the city.

Albert Freeman, a former resident of Salem, who was arrested in a railroad yard at Worth, Tex., two weeks ago, died Thursday night from the effects of the injuries.

Frank W. Carr, of Charleston, will represent the New Albany Presbytery in the General Assembly of the Presbyterian church of the United States to be held at Denver May 12.

John V. Kline, a veteran of the Civil War, and a former resident of this city, died a few days ago at his home in Dayton, O. He was seventy-three years old and leaves a family.

The revival services conducted at Wesley chapel for the last two weeks, pastored by the Rev. L. C. Jeffrey, have closed. There have been a number of conversions to the church.

Mrs. A. E. Taylor, of Nevada, Mo., and William Clemenson, of Millport, O., have been called to the city by the critical illness of their father, Peter Clemenson, 111 Constitution street.

It has been announced by the temperance people of Floyd county that they will file a petition with the Board of County Commissioners Monday morning for holding a county option election.

Memorial services will be conducted Sunday morning at the German Evangelical church by Manzanita tribe of Red Men, in special honor of the Rev. F. P. Weathers.

W. H. Boone, of the firm of Ewing & Boone, has gone to Brandenburg, Ky., to defend Frederick Boone, who is to be tried in the Meade Circuit Court on a charge of having assaulted his niece.

Mrs. Herman Bradford, a former resident of this city, who has been dangerously ill at her home in Dunkirk, N. Y., is in a critical condition, and fears are entertained by her friends that she will not recover.

Mrs. Jacob Best, for the last two weeks confined to his home on East Spring street, near Vincennes street, from a severe attack of pneumonia, was able to be at his office yesterday morning.

Norman Beach, the 8-year-old son of the Rev. A. R. Beach, pastor of Centenary, fell from a fruit tree in the parsonage yard yesterday and fractured his collarbone. The fracture was reduced by Dr. J. P. Weathers.

On account of the death and funeral of Mrs. R. Dietz, sister of J. A. Kraft, a member of the Rev. E. H. Kraft's committee, the dance that was to have been given to-night by New Albany Lodge of Elks was postponed until Thursday night, May 6.

The funeral of Mrs. Reinhardt Dietz will take place this afternoon at the family home, 115 West Market street, will be conducted by the Rev. E. G. Kuenzler, pastor of the German Evangelical church, and the burial will be in Fairview cemetery.

Margaret Overton, a colored girl of 14 years old, was arrested by Chief of Police on a charge of stealing a watch from the Golden Gate State with a view to getting ready for the threatened invasion of California by the Armenian League and local option movement.

NEGRO "MAMMY" DIES AT RIPE AGE OF 105 YEARS.

Mary Mack Remembered Incidents Having To Do With Close of War of 1812.

"Aunt Mary" Mack, believed to have been 105 years old, and who is said to have been the oldest negro woman in Louisville, died Tuesday night at her home, 1117 Tenth street. Her death was due to the infirmities of old age. Until her health became such that she was unable to get about, "Aunt Mary" was a well-known figure in the city. She had often related interesting war-time incidents, and her death was a loss to the city. The funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock this morning at the residence and will be held at the Episcopal church, Twelfth and Madison streets. The burial will be in Greenwood cemetery.

Office walls

Increased efficiency is easily secured, and better service and more light made possible when the office or store is decorated with

Alabastine
The Sanitary Wall Coating

Alabastine is a powder made of Alabaster rock, sold in packages. Simply mixed with cold water and applied, it gives a better than wallpaper. More beautiful, more healthful, and more economical.

Try it. All dealers.

Office walls

Increased efficiency is easily secured, and better service and more light made possible when the office or store is decorated with

Alabastine
The Sanitary Wall Coating

Alabastine is a powder made of Alabaster rock, sold in packages. Simply mixed with cold water and applied, it gives a better than wallpaper. More beautiful, more healthful, and more economical.

Try it. All dealers.

Office walls

Increased efficiency is easily secured, and better service and more light made possible when the office or store is decorated with

Alabastine
The Sanitary Wall Coating

Alabastine is a powder made of Alabaster rock, sold in packages. Simply mixed with cold water and applied, it gives a better than wallpaper. More beautiful, more healthful, and more economical.

Try it. All dealers.

Save $10 to $50 on Every $100

YOU SPEND THIS SEASON ON

FURNITURE

The reductions we have made, incident to our

REMOVAL SALE

enable you to do it. Then you have practically a limitless assortment to choose from, as our stock has never been larger or more complete.

INVESTIGATE THIS SALE.

462 Fourth Avenue.

KEISKER'S

Look For Removal Sale Signs.

"ANITA" SPARKLING WATER for HIGH BALLS.

VISIT Our Showrooms and Be Convinced That the Best, Guaranteed Enameled Plumbing Fixtures Are Cheapest in the Long Run.

The Ahrens & Onig Co.
(Incorporated.)
319-323 WEST MAIN STREET, LOUISVILLE, KY.

We carry all kinds of lumber and manufacture sash, doors, blinds and interior trimmings, soft and hard woods.

The Frey Planing Mill Co.
SUCCESSORS TO
Lortz & Frey Planing Mill Co.

We Loan Money

To Housekeepers $10 and Upwards

If you are interested we will be glad to tell you all about it without charge. The average person does not realize what a benefit an institution of this kind really is. Suppose you have a credit good, each one wants something each week. Would it not be a great deal better if you came to us for obtained money, ready cash, than to go to a bank and get a loan? We will loan you money for so long a time. Courteous and obliging employees.

Fidelity Loan Co.
402 S. Fourth St.
Over Kirby's 10c Store.

Wedding Gifts

An exquisite assortment From which to choose—Things that will please.

KLAUBER 222 Fourth Ave.

NOW IS THE TIME

To test our coal. You'll need one load this season before you lay in your new supply. One load of our Jellico Block will convince you of its quality and how much you can save in your fuel bill.

1 Ton $3.75. A ton of coal from us means 2,000 Lbs.

J. K. Leahy & Son, 243 Fifth St.

Anchor Stove and Range Co.
(Incorporated.)

The Price You Pay

To-day for a Gas Range is but a small part of the price you will pay for gas in the lifetime of a gas range. It is, therefore, economy to buy the best gas range—one that uses the least gas and will stand the hardest usage for the greater number of years. It is to your own interest to buy the

Quick Meal Gas Ranges
SOLD BY
GEHER & SON
215 W. Market St., nr. Second.

COAL

REDUCED.
Anthracite, April and May, ton, $7.75
St. Bernard Lump, per ton, $3.00
St. Bernard Egg Nut, per ton, $3.00
St. Bernard Nut, per ton, $2.50
Pocahontas Lump, per ton, $4.40
Pocahontas Fine Run, per ton, $4.00
Pocahontas, del. to city, per ton, $3.75
Prompt Service. Yards All Parts of City.
ST. BERNARD MINING CO.

Both Phones 932. 342 W. MAIN ST. Also South Louisville, New Albany and Jeffersonville, Ind.

5 Per Cent. Net.

The FIRST MORTGAGE REAL ESTATE GOLD BONDS issued by the Louisville Title Company are now being sold to the public at 95 cents. These bonds are secured by improved real estate worth two to four times the amount of the loan. You can inspect the property and select bonds to suit.

LOUISVILLE TITLE CO.
234 Fifth St., Bet. Main and Market.

$6.00 CHICAGO
New York Central Lines
143 Fourth Avenue.

Flowers

For Every Occasion
QUALITY AND PRICES ARE RIGHT

As Members of the R. M. A. We Retain the Right to Fare to Out-of-Town Customers.

AUGUST R. BAUMER FLORIST
Masonic Temple, Fourth and Chestnut.
Special Attention to Out-of-Town Orders.

SCANLON COAL CO.
(Incorporated.)
TELEPHONES 405